

HEMPSTEAD MAN KILLS SELF

The News Review

By BRUCE CATTON

SOMETHING that deserves that over-worked title, "epoch-making," seems to be happening on the other side of the Pacific ocean these days, and we are not giving it quite as much thought as it deserves.

Court Decision Invalidates 116 'Dry-Zone' Areas

Thorn Act Repeals So-Called Special Dry Act at Fayetteville

SALES TAX CASE UP Decision Is Expected By Next Monday on Act

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court Monday held that the Thorn liquor legalization act repealed three so-called dry-zone special acts which within a five-mile radius of the University of Arkansas.

Effect of the decision was to invalidate 113 other so-called local liquor prohibition acts.

A test involving validity of the sales tax was submitted to the Arkansas Supreme Court Monday with a decision expected by next Monday.

There was no oral argument on appeal to the supreme court, the case having been argued in a number of briefs filed by attorneys for interested parties and other attorneys as friends to the court.

The appeal arose from Pulaski chancery court where the suit was filed to restrain Revenue Commissioner from making preparations to collect the tax which would have come into effect May 1.

Frazier-Lemke Act WASHINGTON.—(AP)—The Frazier-Lemke act granting a five-year moratorium on paying off farm mortgages and affecting billions of dollars in indebtedness, was held unconstitutional Monday by the United States Supreme court. The case was brought from federal district court in Western Kentucky.

The Sixth circuit court of appeals upheld legislation affecting farm debts estimated at $12,000,000,000. The law provided the moratorium if attempts failed to scale farmer's debts down to a figure he could pay. His property is not to be foreclosed during the five-year period if the owner pays a "reasonable rent."

NRA Unconstitutional Recovering act provisions giving the president the right to proclaim code rule over private industry-power regarded as the heart of the NRA—was held unconstitutional Monday by a supreme court decision.

The court made the ruling in an opinion on Schechter poultry case from New York, selected by the government to test its power to regulate wages and hours of workers through more than 500 NRA codes of fair competition.

D. A. Gean Here on Short Vacation

A. Gean, former Hope newspaper publisher, accompanied by Mrs. Gean and their son, D. A. Gean, Jr., arrived in Hope Saturday for a short visit with Mrs. Gean's brother, Leonard Ellis.

At present Mr. Gean is publisher of newspapers at Sullivan and Stillwell, Ohio. He was formerly editor and owner of the Hope Daily Press which was purchased in 1929 by Star Publishing Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Gean will probably return home Tuesday morning.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS: NEG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

Red River Reaches Crest at Fulton

Rapid Recession After River Goes to High 34.3 Feet

Stage Monday Morning Reported to Be 33.8 Feet

FALLING AT INDEX May Floods Leave Many Thousand Acres Damaged in Hempstead

Red river, which has harassed a wide area with flood waters for the past week, reached its crest of 34.3 feet at Fulton Sunday and then began a rapid decline.

The stream had fallen to 33.8 early Monday. Receding waters caused some fear for the levees being sucked away and 200 FERA workers were sent back to their posts.

Aided by sunshine and a slow recession of backwaters, the river is expected to fall rapidly within the next few days.

The crest of flood waters up the stream passed Fulton Saturday night and began falling at that time. The stream fell nine inches at Fulton Sunday.

High at Garland City

The river at Garland City Monday was believed at a standstill after reaching the highest stage since the spring floods of 1927. The water was at the top of levees in several places.

The river continued to damage the St. Louis Southwestern railroad bridge the eastern end of which was reported to be slowly washing away.

Bridge Keeper Russell said approximately 35 or 40 yards of the railroad tracks had been washed out. While thousands of acres of bottom land in lower Hempstead county is inundated, the decline of the river brought relief to farmers who would have suffered from further losses had the stream risen a few more inches.

Replanting of crops on several Red river farms will be necessary. No estimate was made of the number of cultivated acres damaged by flood waters.

Hope Storks Win First Game Here

Defeat Gurdun 8 to 4—Patterson Hits Home Run

Hope Storks won the opening game of the baseball season here Sunday afternoon, defeating Gurdun, 8 to 4. The game was played at Fair Park.

The Storks started scoring in the first frame, Coop reaching first on a field's choice and then came home when McAlpine lined to deep center field.

The Storks scored their other runs in the fifth, sixth and seventh innings. Patterson of Hope cracked out a home run in the sixth inning, scoring Russell ahead of him.

Dabig shot out Gurdun until the fifth when the visitors bunched five hits for four runs. Patterson went to his rescue and held Gurdun scoreless the remaining innings.

The outstanding fielding catch was made by Jimmy Cook of Hope, who raced far back into center field to take a line drive.

Man's ferocious cousin, Famous French traveler learns that the savagery of the Gorrilla is no myth. Read this illustrated article in the American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next Sunday's Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Man's ferocious cousin, Famous French traveler learns that the savagery of the Gorrilla is no myth. Read this illustrated article in the American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next Sunday's Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Man's ferocious cousin, Famous French traveler learns that the savagery of the Gorrilla is no myth. Read this illustrated article in the American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next Sunday's Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Man's ferocious cousin, Famous French traveler learns that the savagery of the Gorrilla is no myth. Read this illustrated article in the American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next Sunday's Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Chief

A Kentucky school superintendent will head Kwanis International for the coming year, Harper Gaskin, above, of Madisonville, having been named president at the annual convention in San Antonio, Texas. Gaskin has served Kwanis in state and national offices and has been active for more than 20 years in educational work in his state.

Senior Class to Give Annual Play

"Daddies" Will Be Presented Friday Night at City Hall

The senior class play, "Daddies," will be held Friday night in city hall auditorium, Miss Miriam Carlton, director announced Monday.

Rehearsals are being held each night. The play is a comedy of three acts, written by John L. Hobble. The cast was announced Monday as:

Robert Audrey, Paul Jones; James Crockett, Winford Dubbs; Henry Allen, J. W. Harper; William Rivers, G. B. Martin; Nicholson, Walters, Willard Anderson; Jan Temple, Beatrice Gordon; Mrs. Audrey, Floy Mae Wisener; Bobette Audrey, Geneva Higginson.

Madame Levine, Lynette McKamie; Larry Gene Young; Sammy, Nancy Faye Williams; Gustave, Gus Enloe; Emile, John Cecil Weaver; Francis, Sammie Segner; Katie, Pauline Jones; Parker, John Henry Putman.

Chancery Court Convenes Monday

The regular term of chancery court convened Monday at Washington. Divorce proceedings and land foreclosures was expected to be the principal transactions.

Municipal court at Hope was postponed Monday until June 3, due to chancery court at Washington.

Man's ferocious cousin, Famous French traveler learns that the savagery of the Gorrilla is no myth. Read this illustrated article in the American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next Sunday's Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Man's ferocious cousin, Famous French traveler learns that the savagery of the Gorrilla is no myth. Read this illustrated article in the American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next Sunday's Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Man's ferocious cousin, Famous French traveler learns that the savagery of the Gorrilla is no myth. Read this illustrated article in the American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next Sunday's Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Man's ferocious cousin, Famous French traveler learns that the savagery of the Gorrilla is no myth. Read this illustrated article in the American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next Sunday's Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Man's ferocious cousin, Famous French traveler learns that the savagery of the Gorrilla is no myth. Read this illustrated article in the American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next Sunday's Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Man's ferocious cousin, Famous French traveler learns that the savagery of the Gorrilla is no myth. Read this illustrated article in the American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next Sunday's Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Man's ferocious cousin, Famous French traveler learns that the savagery of the Gorrilla is no myth. Read this illustrated article in the American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next Sunday's Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Parents Willing to Pay $200,000 for Return of Son

Law Enforcement Agencies Give Kidnapers Chance to Return Lad

ABDUCTED FRIDAY Fear Expressed for Life of George Weyerhaeuser, Timber Heir

TACOMA, Wash.—(AP)—Fearful for the life of George Weyerhaeuser, 9, all law enforcement officers heeded the pleas Monday of the boy's distracted family and gave the abductors every opportunity to return the lad unharmed.

The family of the missing boy indicated their willingness to make $200,000 ransom payment immediately and sought new means in contacting the kidnapers.

Publication Monday of a ransom note sent to the parents after the kidnaping last Friday caused authorities to express fear that negotiations for his return would be considerably hampered as the result.

Parked Auto Clue TACOMA, Wash.—(AP)—Authorities investigating the kidnaping of George Weyerhaeuser, nine, believed they had a good "lead" Sunday night when L. H. Burnett, Tacoma jeweler, reported he saw a man in a parked tan sedan bearing California license plates near the Lowell school last Friday, the day the little heir to the Weyerhaeuser fortune vanished.

The information furnished by Burnett, verified the story of Miss Jean Comfort who said that she saw three men in a tan sedan watching the school of the missing boy attend, for four or five days. Jean is the 16-year-old daughter of A. B. Comfort, former reading clerk of the Washington House of Representatives.

The jeweler told federal agents that he saw the automobile at 9:45 a. m. He said it was parked in front of the Aquinas Academy, across the street and in the next block from the Lowell school.

Miss Comfort had advised the sisters of the Aquinas Academy about the car the day before the abduction. She said the sisters intended to have police investigate the incident Friday, but they did not see the machine that day.

Home Unguarded Meantime, warned that their kidnaped son had only three days more to live unless ransomed for $200,000. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Weyerhaeuser worked in the seclusion of their home in Tacoma, about a mile from the school.

The house was left unguarded. Telephone and mail channels were left open to the worried parents.

An advertisement appearing in the Seattle Post-Intelligencer proclaimed their willingness to pay nearly a quarter of a million dollars from the great family fortune for return of the child.

Still another advertisement asked the abductors to make new contact arrangements. Publicly occasioned by the audacious crime caused the parents to fear something might go wrong with the initial plan outlined by the extortionists for negotiating.

Plan Big Expenditure for Malaria Control

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Expenditure of more than $58,000,000 in work relief funds for malaria control in 16 states, mostly in the South, was proposed by the public health service.

The program, which would be in charge of Dr. J. L. Williams, Jr., senior surgeon, will be outlined at a conference here June 17 of state health officers.

Dr. Williams said it was proposed the state health departments carry out the program under supervision of the federal health service.

The program contemplates draining ditches where malaria carrying mosquitoes breed, or gilling waters where drainage is not practical.

Application for $88,317,936 for the work already has been made, and Dr. Williams expressed belief the money will be granted. A large portion of the money would be used for labor.

Annual Poppy Sale in Hope Nets $37.42

The annual poppy sale conducted here Saturday by the Auxiliary of Leslie Huddleston post of the American Legion netted $37.42 of which $21 are of needy children of World war veterans.

Mrs. Arthur Swank of the Auxiliary expressed thanks to the public for co-operation in the drive for funds.

Lumber King's Son Kidnaped

George Philip Weyerhaeuser, 9, son of John P. Weyerhaeuser, multimillionaire lumber magnate of Tacoma, Wash., who was kidnaped as he left school for lunch Friday. It is reported that his parents have received a letter demanding $200,000 ransom for his return.

Hope Is Listed on Goodwill Tour

Little Rock Chamber of Commerce Boosters Will Visit Here

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—The Little Rock Chamber of Commerce announced plans for a three-day goodwill tour into Southern Arkansas to be made by 100 or more Little Rock professional and business men on June 11, 12 and 13.

The party, accompanied by the Chamber of Commerce Goodwill band, will leave here June 11, to visit Benton, Perla, Malvern, Donaldson, Arkadelphia, Hope, Texarkana, Garland City, Lewisville, Stamps, Waldo, McNeil, Magnolia, Stephens, Camden, Smackover, El Dorado, Colton, Hartell, Tinsman, Banks, Warren, Fordyce, Leola, Poyen, Haskell and Bauxite.

Brief addresses will be made at each stop during the three-day tour. Forty-six reservations already have been made.

Removal of Court House Is Revived

McGehee Hopes to Be County Seat With New Building

ARKANSAS CITY, Ark.—(AP)—Talk of the possibility of the removal of the Desha county seat from Arkansas City to McGehee has been revived with the awarding of a contract for the latter's $40,000 new city hall.

Contract for the McGehee project has been given to A. C. McBride & Son of Bastrop, La., for $29,955, with the remainder of the $40,000 to be used for furnishing the building. It will have three stories was vaults in many officers. Ample room for all county officers will be available. A jail is planned on the top floor with the courtroom on the second floor.

Desha county citizens must decide at the polls before the courthouse could be moved. McGehee is gaining voting strength and is expected by many to have a voting majority of the county soon. Agitation was started seven years ago to move the courthouse, but the disastrous 1927 flood ended this, due to the fact that a new courthouse as McGehee would have been necessary.

McGehee is more centrally located and the largest town in the county. Work on its new city hall will start as soon as the city approves the $30,000 bond issue and the PWA approves the contract.

Hope Men in Tie for Golf Honors

Erringer and Hammons Shoot 71 in Handicap Tournament

Orville Erringer and Coach Foy Hammons tied for first place in the local handicap golf tournament at the Hope Country Club Sunday afternoon with net scores of 71 for eighteen holes.

Other golfers who placed in the contest were: Jewell, D. White, LaGrone, Davis, Stan White, Caplinger and Gann.

About 25 players participated. Coach Hammons announced that tentative plans had been made for an out-of-town match next Sunday.

Pardon of Former Clerk to Be Asked

Petition in Behalf of W. H. Mahoney to Go to Governor

LITTLE ROCK.—A petition for a pardon for W. H. Mahoney, former Pulaski county chancery clerk, who was sentenced in December to five years at Tucker prison farm for embezzlement of public funds, is scheduled to be presented to Governor Futrell this week, following acquittal of W. T. Dorrough, who was a deputy clerk by a jury in First Division Circuit Court last week.

Mahoney and Dorrough were indicted jointly on nine counts of embezzlement after an audit disclosed a shortage of approximately $16,000 in the chancery's clerk's office during 1931 and 1932. The remaining eight indictments against Dorrough were nolle prossed by Judge McGehee on recommendation of Prosecuting Attorney Fred A. Donham.

Mahoney made a brief appearance at Dorrough's trial as a state witness. He denied he had even taken money from the cash fund of the chancery clerk's office without substituting a "ticket" Dorrough's testimony was similar, but evidence at the trial indicated that worthless checks and 1 O. U.'s, accounted for less than $3,000 of the missing funds.

Public notice has been posted that Mahoney will be asked for Mahoney. It is anticipated that the plea will be based on the theory that the former clerk has been punished sufficiently in view of Dorrough's acquittal.

Mahoney's two weeks furlough from Tucker farm will expire next Sunday, and it is understood friends plan to seek further clemency before he returns to prison.

J. L. Gilbert Is Found Hanging in Barn at Columbus

Farmer, Ill., Despondent, Takes Own Life Sunday Morning

FUNERAL MONDAY Burial to Be Held in Westmoreland Cemetery Near Old Liberty

J. L. Gilbert, 63, farmer residing at Columbus, 12 miles northwest of Hope, committed suicide Sunday by hanging himself. Ill health, coupled with financial difficulties were advanced as a motive for his act.

Gilbert left home about 8 o'clock Sunday morning, telling his wife he intended to inspect his cotton crop. When he failed to return home for lunch, a search was instituted. Mrs. Gilbert discovered the body about 3 p. m. hanging from a rope which was attached to a rafter in the barn.

A coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide. It was believed that he used a plank to climb to the rafter, then tied the rope around his neck and leaped to his death. He left no notes.

Funeral services were to be held Monday afternoon at Westmoreland cemetery, near Old Liberty. Mr. Gilbert was born and reared in Hempstead county. He had lived at Columbus about a year, moving there from Old Liberty community.

Surviving are his widow, four daughters, Mrs. L. E. Darwin of Searcy, Mrs. Sam White of Elk City, Okla.; Mrs. Bud Ames of Fulton; Mrs. S. W. Front of Fulton, and four sons, Lee and Edward Gilbert of Fulton, and Orin and Wayne Gilbert of Columbus.

State Tournament to Open Monday

Dozen Players Considered in Running for Golf Title

TEXARKANA, Ark.—(AP)—The 20th annual Arkansas State Golf Association tournament, opening here Monday, seems to be a wide open affair with any one of a dozen players having an even chance of taking the championship from Curtis Collier of Fort Smith.

The qualifying round of 36 holes will be played Monday, with match play to open the following morning. Players with a club handicap of 15 or more were permitted to qualify Sunday for any flight except the championship bracket.

Eugene Mullins, secretary-manager of the Texarkana Country Club, said that 25 Texarkana Country Club players and 10 from State Line Golf Club here would compete.

He has been advised that 19 golfers from Little Rock would enter and probably as many from Fort Smith. Four are coming from Fayetteville, and Hot Springs players have been arriving for several days to practice over the course. Entries from Jonesboro, Helena, El Dorado and many other golf centers were expected.

Likely Contenders Dopesters forecast that the fight (Continued on page three)

Alex. H. Washburn Leaves for Visit

Alex. H. Washburn, publisher of The Star, accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Washburn, left Hope Friday afternoon for a three weeks visit in Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

The elder Mr. Washburn, accompanied by Mrs. Washburn, arrived in Hope last Tuesday and spent three days here with their son, Alex. Washburn.

The newspaper man will return here about the middle of June.

Markets

Cotton NEW ORLEANS.—(AP)—Deadlines were restricted at the start of trading Monday on the cotton market with prices holding within a narrow range around the previous closing level.

Considerable attention was focused on the French monetary situation and this and other uncertainties tended to hold trading to rather low levels.

July was unchanged at 11.94 at the first call. October was up four points at 11.80. December was two points higher at 11.84 and January held unchanged at 11.87.

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened barely steady, one higher to six lower with trade buying of near months and liquidation of distant positions. July 11.94; October 11.84; December 11.87; January 11.91; March 11.94; May 11.94.

Hope Star

O Justice, Deliver Thy Herald From False Report!

Published every week-day afternoon by Star Publishing Co., Inc., E. Palmer & Alex. H. Washburn, at The Star building, 212-214 South Walnut street, Hope, Arkansas.

C. E. PALMER, President
ALEX. H. WASHBURN, Editor and Publisher

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Hope, Arkansas Under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Definition: "The newspaper is an institution developed by modern civilization to present the news of the day, to foster commerce and industry, through widely circulated advertisements, and to furnish that check upon government which no constitution has ever been able to provide."—Col. R. R. McCormick.

Subscription Rate (Always Payable in Advance): By city carrier, per week 10c; six months $2.15; one year $5.00. By mail, in Hempstead, Nevada, Howard, Miller and Lafayette counties, $3.50 per year; elsewhere $5.00.

Member of The Associated Press: The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

National Advertising Representatives: Arkansas Dailies, Inc., Memphis, Tenn., Sterick Bldg., New York City, 369 Lexington; Chicago, Ill., 75 E. Wacker Drive; Detroit, Mich., 7338 Woodward Ave.; St. Louis, Mo., Star Bldg.

Charges on Tributes, Etc.: Charges will be made for all tributes, cards of thanks, resolutions, or memorials, concerning the departed. Commercial newspapers hold to this policy in the news columns to protect their readers from a deluge of space-taking memorials. The Star disclaims responsibility for the safe-keeping or return of any unsolicited manuscripts.

ALWAYS THREAT

Five times Cliff Bergere, above, Los Angeles driver, has entered the Indianapolis 500-mile auto classic, and five times he has finished in the money. Bergere again is entered in the Hoosier event Decoration Day. He is a movie stunt man in his spare time.

May 24-29, 1920.

In Business.
Citizens National Bank stated: "It's easy sailing for the man with a bank account. How is it with you?"
Haynes Brothers advertised Colgate Toilet Articles, and luggage.
Hope Fertilizer Co. stressed the value of their product.

Hope Lumber Co. advised you to materialize and realize your wish for a home.

Hope Hardware Co. stressed genuine international repairs.

Ward & Sons published celerity and iron tonic and Little Liver pills.

New Grand Theater showed Marguerite Clark in Duck in Pawn.
Freeman & Co. announced the grand opening sale of their 5-10-25c store.

In the News.

An effort to override President Wilson's veto of the peace resolution failed in the house.

Hope Elks victors in close game with Stamps. The line up was: Boyett, cf; Anderson, 3b; Robins, 1b; Delony, c; Clark, 2b; Black, ss; Ellis, lf; Cronson, rf; Murphy, p.

Col. T. C. McRae opened his campaign for governor in speech at Searcy.

The city sewer commission was composed of Messrs. R. M. LaGrone, A. L. Betts and W. Y. Foster.

Announcement was made that the Hempstead county pig club members would purchase purebred pigs through the assistance of the local banks.

In Society.

The marriage of Miss Vela Dean Haganan and Terrell Sammons Cornelius was solemnized at the First Baptist church with the Rev. Gaston D. Duncan officiating. Ushers were: Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs. E. O. Wingfield, Mrs. Hosea Garrett, Miss Rose Brazil, Mrs. Forest Sharpe and Mrs. Taylor Stuart. Miss Helen Williams was pianist and Carter Haynes soloist. The bride's attendants were: Miss Dell McRae, Mrs. Glenn Graham, Miss Mildred Cabe (Stamps), Margaret Giles (Texarkana) and Margaret Kinsler (Texarkana) and Master Rufus Henderson, Jr., acted as ring bearer. The bride walked with her aunt, Mrs. C. N. Black. Mr. T. S. McDewitt acted as the groom's best man. The impressive double ring ceremony was used. The young couple left soon after the ceremony for Hugo, Oklahoma, where the groom was engaged in the clothing business, where they then made their home.

Now Go On With The Story
CHAPTER XVI
MICHAEL BEATHEROB went down into the paddock. Prince Charlie was saddled. Michael had on his gray tweeds—the suit he had worn the night Katharine had seen him at Mrs. Merse's house. He patted Prince Charlie and led him into the stable where the other horses neighed in recognition. Pury, in her stall, stamped and neighed and pawed the straw under her feet. But Michael disapproved the nervous little horse by giving no sign of noticing. Usually he spent a good deal of time with the animals after dinner. Pury rolled her eyes so that only the whites were visible, if you stood at the stable door. But Michael paid no attention to her—only gave Prince Charlie a lump of sugar, said a word or two to Tips, who was reading a week-old comic section, and was on his way.

Michael without one of his steeds was like a king without his kingdom. The little, shabby, rattling car was an incongruous vehicle for the tall, rangy young man with the western tan on his brow and cheeks. He climbed into it, threw it into gear and began to slide down the incline away from the shabby farmhouse.

This was twilight. Not the Montana twilight Michael knew and loved, with its sudden drop from full day to dusk, its almost dazzling, crystalline coolness, but an eastern twilight, warm and heavy and languid. The day had been extremely hot. Michael drove out of the lane and down the road toward the village.

On the porch of the Merse house two small girls dressed in sleeveless frocks were having their supper. They both waved wildly to Michael as he passed, and he waved back. Sybil and Diana adored him already. They had had three riding lessons.

Nice kids. Good kids. Their mother was a nice woman, too, with fine eyes. If Michael could get a few more clients like them the club would be on its feet.

He frowned. The mortgage on the place, the old Rogers' place that he had bought so confidently last year, would fall due in September.

The bank held the mortgage. Inglecock Trust & National. Michael was going down tonight to see about it. See if he couldn't get a renewal.

He went through the shabby portion of the village that lay just west of the railroad tracks. The old red brick station with a modern background of up-to-date landscaping lay bathed in a wash of clear late sunshine. Every spear of grass stood separately apart and every single petunia in the round beds blazed with added color. Several stout, weary women with little children in tow sat limply on the benches in the station park.

Michael's car turned right, off Main Street, and sought a broad street sloping down to the blue water of the Sound, clearly seen ahead. This was a street of big, rather old-fashioned, pretentious houses. Before the ugliest and most pretentious in the block he put on his brakes and jumped out.

There were some few hundred feet of grounds about this particular house, embowered and scalloped in a way to make a landscape artist writh. There were rhododendrons, their dark, glossy leaves rich and thick, banked in the background. There were evergreens of every conceivable variety, dwarf maple trees, forsythia and mock-orange and butterfly bushes, crowded together. The screened porch, running across the full width of the house, was crowded with wicker chairs and tables and swinging couches. Everything was lavish and completely lacking in taste.

Michael rang the bell and a neat middle-aged maid in a maroon uniform came to the door. "Miss Moon said to tell you she'd be right down."

"I—" Michael hesitated ever so slightly. "I was to see Mr. Moon."

The maid allowed a flicker of surprise to disarrange her staid features.

"Mr. Moon is in the city," she said. "But Miss Moon will be right down."

Michael frowned, after she had gone, in puzzlement. When he had happened to mention that morning that he had to go to see her father on business some time during the day Sally had said her father wouldn't be home until evening, that he was leaving, probably on the morrow, for a long vacation.

"Why not run in to see him tonight?" she had said, so very artlessly. Sally was a friendly little thing. It was a wonder people roundabout didn't appreciate her. So full of fun and spirits.

MICHAEL sat down and lighted a cigaret. Something must have gone wrong in Mr. Moon's plans. Well, Sally would explain. She came in presently, a breathless scrap of femininity, with her dark curls tumbled round her face, her voice breaking into constant laughter.

"Michael, I am so sorry! What ever must you think of me?"

He stood, smiling down at her, at her troubled eyes, at the half-earnest, half-pretended seriousness of her tone. A small girl, Sally Moon, although one day she would be on the plump side—smaller by far than a girl who had looked lovely into his eyes that morning, slumped over the wheel of her car, a fair girl with eyes that burned darkly blue in a delicate face, Michael frowned again, shaking the thought from him.

Sally pouted.

"He's not even listening to me!" she cried, addressing an imaginary audience.

"I am so!"

Sally dimpled. It was one of the things she did very well. She

BZZZZZ

Summer Sweethearts

By Mabel McElliot © 1935, NEA Service, Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
KATHARINE STYVICHURST, daughter of wealthy VICTOR STYVICHURST, is deeply attracted by MICHAEL BEATHEROB who runs a riding school. Katharine is discontented and restless under her stepmother's rule.

Thrown from a horse, she is taken to the home of VIOLET MERSE, who once was in love with Katharine's father. Violet is drawn to the girl and they become friends.

DR. JOHN KAYE, just back from Europe, visits the Styvichs.

DR. PARKER, Katharine's closest friend, is in love with GIBBS LAURIN, and persists in seeing him in spite of her parents' objections. Katharine exists Dr. Kaye to help her keep Zoe from eloping with Gibbs. They take Zoe to a night club where she sees Gibbs with a notorious woman. Zoe threatens to do away with herself.

Now Go On With The Story
CHAPTER XVI
MICHAEL BEATHEROB went down into the paddock. Prince Charlie was saddled. Michael had on his gray tweeds—the suit he had worn the night Katharine had seen him at Mrs. Merse's house. He patted Prince Charlie and led him into the stable where the other horses neighed in recognition.

Pury, in her stall, stamped and neighed and pawed the straw under her feet. But Michael disapproved the nervous little horse by giving no sign of noticing. Usually he spent a good deal of time with the animals after dinner. Pury rolled her eyes so that only the whites were visible, if you stood at the stable door. But Michael paid no attention to her—only gave Prince Charlie a lump of sugar, said a word or two to Tips, who was reading a week-old comic section, and was on his way.

Michael without one of his steeds was like a king without his kingdom. The little, shabby, rattling car was an incongruous vehicle for the tall, rangy young man with the western tan on his brow and cheeks. He climbed into it, threw it into gear and began to slide down the incline away from the shabby farmhouse.

This was twilight. Not the Montana twilight Michael knew and loved, with its sudden drop from full day to dusk, its almost dazzling, crystalline coolness, but an eastern twilight, warm and heavy and languid. The day had been extremely hot. Michael drove out of the lane and down the road toward the village.

On the porch of the Merse house two small girls dressed in sleeveless frocks were having their supper. They both waved wildly to Michael as he passed, and he waved back. Sybil and Diana adored him already. They had had three riding lessons.

Nice kids. Good kids. Their mother was a nice woman, too, with fine eyes. If Michael could get a few more clients like them the club would be on its feet.

He frowned. The mortgage on the place, the old Rogers' place that he had bought so confidently last year, would fall due in September.

The bank held the mortgage. Inglecock Trust & National. Michael was going down tonight to see about it. See if he couldn't get a renewal.

He went through the shabby portion of the village that lay just west of the railroad tracks. The old red brick station with a modern background of up-to-date landscaping lay bathed in a wash of clear late sunshine. Every spear of grass stood separately apart and every single petunia in the round beds blazed with added color. Several stout, weary women with little children in tow sat limply on the benches in the station park.

Michael's car turned right, off Main Street, and sought a broad street sloping down to the blue water of the Sound, clearly seen ahead. This was a street of big, rather old-fashioned, pretentious houses. Before the ugliest and most pretentious in the block he put on his brakes and jumped out.

There were some few hundred feet of grounds about this particular house, embowered and scalloped in a way to make a landscape artist writh. There were rhododendrons, their dark, glossy leaves rich and thick, banked in the background. There were evergreens of every conceivable variety, dwarf maple trees, forsythia and mock-orange and butterfly bushes, crowded together. The screened porch, running across the full width of the house, was crowded with wicker chairs and tables and swinging couches. Everything was lavish and completely lacking in taste.

Michael rang the bell and a neat middle-aged maid in a maroon uniform came to the door. "Miss Moon said to tell you she'd be right down."

"I—" Michael hesitated ever so slightly. "I was to see Mr. Moon."

The maid allowed a flicker of surprise to disarrange her staid features.

"Mr. Moon is in the city," she said. "But Miss Moon will be right down."

Michael frowned, after she had gone, in puzzlement. When he had happened to mention that morning that he had to go to see her father on business some time during the day Sally had said her father wouldn't be home until evening, that he was leaving, probably on the morrow, for a long vacation.

"Why not run in to see him tonight?" she had said, so very artlessly. Sally was a friendly little thing. It was a wonder people roundabout didn't appreciate her. So full of fun and spirits.

MICHAEL sat down and lighted a cigaret. Something must have gone wrong in Mr. Moon's plans. Well, Sally would explain. She came in presently, a breathless scrap of femininity, with her dark curls tumbled round her face, her voice breaking into constant laughter.

"Michael, I am so sorry! What ever must you think of me?"

He stood, smiling down at her, at her troubled eyes, at the half-earnest, half-pretended seriousness of her tone. A small girl, Sally Moon, although one day she would be on the plump side—smaller by far than a girl who had looked lovely into his eyes that morning, slumped over the wheel of her car, a fair girl with eyes that burned darkly blue in a delicate face, Michael frowned again, shaking the thought from him.

Sally pouted.

"He's not even listening to me!" she cried, addressing an imaginary audience.

"I am so!"

Sally dimpled. It was one of the things she did very well. She

Sweet Home

The Rex Simms of Prescott filled his regular appointment here Sunday.

Mrs. H. H. Huskey left Wednesday for Conway to attend the graduating exercises at Central college. Her daughter, Miss Ruth is a member of the graduating class.

Elmer Sewell of Marfriton, Ark., was here over the week end visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Sewell and other relatives.

Mrs. W. F. Spears spent a pleasant week's vacation in El Dorado visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Salome Watson of Texarkana spent the week end here with her sister, Mrs. J. J. Delaney and Mr. Delaney.

Rev. Simms and Mrs. Simms of Prescott spent Wednesday here calling on friends.

Mary Frances Ward visited relatives in Prescott over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Ppe and sons, Leon and Belle Rae, were week end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nolan.

Mrs. Lewis Salmon called on Mrs. Willie Huskey Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Thompson and family of Blewett were here Sunday beginning, no middle, no finish, all visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Huskey.

Edd Schoonover from near Bough-ton was a pleasant visitor Tuesday of his daughter, Mrs. Coy Huskey and Mr. Huskey.

Lee Huskey spent the week end with Wade Huskey.

M. H. Montgomery was shopping in Prescott Wednesday.

Little Miss Bethie Jo Spears spent a lovely visit with relatives in Hope last week.

The Crittles

Church service was over, and three members walked home together, discussing the message they had heard.

"I tell you," said the first, enthusiastically, "Doctor Blank can certainly give deeper into the truth than any minister I ever heard!"

"Yes," said the second man, "and he can stay under longer."

"Yes," echoed the third, "and come up drier!"—Hudson Star.

But Plenty of It

When the pipe-band of a certain regiment of Scots played for the first time on Church Square, Pretoria, a Kaffir listening to the band was asked what he thought of it.

After a few seconds' consideration he replied: "Plenty no good, boss. No beginning, no middle, no finish, all visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Huskey.

Edd Schoonover from near Bough-ton was a pleasant visitor Tuesday of his daughter, Mrs. Coy Huskey and Mr. Huskey.

Lee Huskey spent the week end with Wade Huskey.

M. H. Montgomery was shopping in Prescott Wednesday.

Little Miss Bethie Jo Spears spent a lovely visit with relatives in Hope last week.

The Crittles

Church service was over, and three members walked home together, discussing the message they had heard.

"I tell you," said the first, enthusiastically, "Doctor Blank can certainly give deeper into the truth than any minister I ever heard!"

"Yes," said the second man, "and he can stay under longer."

"Yes," echoed the third, "and come up drier!"—Hudson Star.

But Plenty of It

When the pipe-band of a certain regiment of Scots played for the first time on Church Square, Pretoria, a Kaffir listening to the band was asked what he thought of it.

After a few seconds' consideration he replied: "Plenty no good, boss. No beginning, no middle, no finish, all visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Huskey.

Edd Schoonover from near Bough-ton was a pleasant visitor Tuesday of his daughter, Mrs. Coy Huskey and Mr. Huskey.

Lee Huskey spent the week end with Wade Huskey.

M. H. Montgomery was shopping in Prescott Wednesday.

Little Miss Bethie Jo Spears spent a lovely visit with relatives in Hope last week.

The Crittles

Church service was over, and three members walked home together, discussing the message they had heard.

"I tell you," said the first, enthusiastically, "Doctor Blank can certainly give deeper into the truth than any minister I ever heard!"

"Yes," said the second man, "and he can stay under longer."

"Yes," echoed the third, "and come up drier!"—Hudson Star.

But Plenty of It

When the pipe-band of a certain regiment of Scots played for the first time on Church Square, Pretoria, a Kaffir listening to the band was asked what he thought of it.

After a few seconds' consideration he replied: "Plenty no good, boss. No beginning, no middle, no finish, all visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Huskey.

Edd Schoonover from near Bough-ton was a pleasant visitor Tuesday of his daughter, Mrs. Coy Huskey and Mr. Huskey.

Lee Huskey spent the week end with Wade Huskey.

M. H. Montgomery was shopping in Prescott Wednesday.

Little Miss Bethie Jo Spears spent a lovely visit with relatives in Hope last week.

The Crittles

Church service was over, and three members walked home together, discussing the message they had heard.

"I tell you," said the first, enthusiastically, "Doctor Blank can certainly give deeper into the truth than any minister I ever heard!"

"Yes," said the second man, "and he can stay under longer."

"Yes," echoed the third, "and come up drier!"—Hudson Star.

But Plenty of It

When the pipe-band of a certain regiment of Scots played for the first time on Church Square, Pretoria, a Kaffir listening to the band was asked what he thought of it.

After a few seconds' consideration he replied: "Plenty no good, boss. No beginning, no middle, no finish, all visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Huskey.

Edd Schoonover from near Bough-ton was a pleasant visitor Tuesday of his daughter, Mrs. Coy Huskey and Mr. Huskey.

Lee Huskey spent the week end with Wade Huskey.

M. H. Montgomery was shopping in Prescott Wednesday.

Little Miss Bethie Jo Spears spent a lovely visit with relatives in Hope last week.

The Crittles

Church service was over, and three members walked home together, discussing the message they had heard.

"I tell you," said the first, enthusiastically, "Doctor Blank can certainly give deeper into the truth than any minister I ever heard!"

"Yes," said the second man, "and he can stay under longer."

"Yes," echoed the third, "and come up drier!"—Hudson Star.

But Plenty of It

When the pipe-band of a certain regiment of Scots played for the first time on Church Square, Pretoria, a Kaffir listening to the band was asked what he thought of it.

After a few seconds' consideration he replied: "Plenty no good, boss. No beginning, no middle, no finish, all visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Huskey.

Edd Schoonover from near Bough-ton was a pleasant visitor Tuesday of his daughter, Mrs. Coy Huskey and Mr. Huskey.

Lee Huskey spent the week end with Wade Huskey.

M. H. Montgomery was shopping in Prescott Wednesday.

Little Miss Bethie Jo Spears spent a lovely visit with relatives in Hope last week.

The Crittles

Church service was over, and three members walked home together, discussing the message they had heard.

"I tell you," said the first, enthusiastically, "Doctor Blank can certainly give deeper into the truth than any minister I ever heard!"

"Yes," said the second man, "and he can stay under longer."

"Yes," echoed the third, "and come up drier!"—Hudson Star.

But Plenty of It

When the pipe-band of a certain regiment of Scots played for the first time on Church Square, Pretoria, a Kaffir listening to the band was asked what he thought of it.

After a few seconds' consideration he replied: "Plenty no good, boss. No beginning, no middle, no finish, all visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Huskey.

Edd Schoonover from near Bough-ton was a pleasant visitor Tuesday of his daughter, Mrs. Coy Huskey and Mr. Huskey.

Lee Huskey spent the week end with Wade Huskey.

M. H. Montgomery was shopping in Prescott Wednesday.

Little Miss Bethie Jo Spears spent a lovely visit with relatives in Hope last week.

The Crittles

Church service was over, and three members walked home together, discussing the message they had heard.

"I tell you," said the first, enthusiastically, "Doctor Blank can certainly give deeper into the truth than any minister I ever heard!"

"Yes," said the second man, "and he can stay under longer."

"Yes," echoed the third, "and come up drier!"—Hudson Star.

But Plenty of It

Society

Mrs. Sid Henry

Telephone 321

Going Home

I never see a little house
Chased closely to the earth.
All haled with a mother's smiles
And gay with children's mirth,
But that I think how blest his
Who, when night's shadows come,
Turn toward such a happy place
And say: "I'm going home!"
In lofty halls and spacious rooms
Lives sometimes grow apart;
But in the little houses, love flowers
Most freely in the heart.
I never see a little house
All aureoled with love
But that I think how blest are they
Who, though far off they rove,
Can turn about some golden day,
Cross plains, hills, ocean's foam,
And, hasting to that perfect spot,
Can say, "I'm going home!"

The Clara Lowthorp chapter, C. of C. are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. R. T. White, North Washington street Tuesday afternoon, immediately after school. A full attendance is urged, and all are requested to bring their dues.

Jimnie Harbin, William Bundy and Ambrose Haneagan are attending the commencement exercises at Hendrix college, Conway, this week.

Miss Frances Eason, who has been attending Magnolia A. & M. college home for the summer vacation.

Dr. Chas. A. and Etta E. Champlin have returned from Little Rock where they attended a two days convention of the Osteopathic Association of Arkansas. Dr. Etta is retiring president of the association, while Dr. Charles, who has served as statistician for the past 20 years, was re-elected to that office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Porterfield of Little Rock were Sunday guests of Mrs. E. G. Porterfield and other relatives and friends.

The little city of Fulton held "open house and water privileges" on Sunday. The highway was literally crowded with people making the pilgrimage to the river in all kinds of vehicles, from the most ancient "Model T" to the very latest in car luxuries, and when the families were too big for a single car, a huge truck was brought into service, and numerous were the crowds that went in a festive mood to see the destruction and desolation that had been caused and was as yet possible by the flow the angry Red river, and the writer was moved to exclaim with the singer, "Old Man River, Keep Away From My Door!" Among the large crowd making the pilgrimage from Hope were, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Diehl, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Beckworth, Miss Jean Young, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Carrigan, Mr. and Mrs. Max Cox, Mrs. George Robison, Mr. and Mrs. Sam McGill, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Porterfield, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Kinser and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Harbin, Mrs. Florence Turner, Mrs. Matt Galster, Miss Van Galster, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gibson Sr., Mrs. Jennie Williams, Mr. and Mrs. George Hosmer and parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hosmer and Mrs. F. N. Porter and Russell Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Weaver and son, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Gunn, Miss Annie Jean Walker and John Dawson, Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Lile, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Porterfield, Mrs. James L. Jamison, Ike T. Bell Sr., and Ike T. Bell Jr., Mrs. Pauline Smith, Miss Maggie Bell, Mrs. Sid Henry, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McNeill and daughter Peggy, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Brint, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Jewell, and Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Moore and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Comer Boyett have as house guests, Mrs. J. B. Hicks and Mrs. William W. Winkler of Shreveport, La.

Mrs. D. T. Chamberlain and Miss Genie Chamberlain have as guests, Mrs. Harry Brand and son, Daniel, of Carrollton, Mo. Monday afternoon, Mrs. Chamberlain and guests accompanied by Mrs. Della White motored to Hot Springs for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Spragins left Monday for Montreat, N. C., where Mr. Spragins is Commissioner from the Ouchita Presbyterian to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church.

The American Legion Auxiliary will sponsor a benefit bridge at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon, June 5, at the Sauer's Theatre. Some handsome prizes will be distributed and those desiring reservations will please call 451 or 666-J.

Mrs. Cleo Smith of Little Rock is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. George Wilson and Mr. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Jones and small daughter of Camden are in Hope today making preparations to move here. Mr. Jones is district supervisor for Gulf Refining Co.

Mrs. E. M. Wells of Wheelers Springs was the week-end guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Linker here.

60 Lives Lost

(Continued from Page One)

killed in New Philadelphia, Ohio. His truck collided with an automobile and then crashed into a tree. The automobile driver was held on manslaughter charges.

Two Killed in Oklahoma
Oklahoma had two deaths, both children. A girl, five, was killed when struck at a street corner in Lawton, her sister was injured. In Oklahoma City a six-year-old boy was killed while playing in a street.

New England had three fatal accidents. A pedestrian was killed at Belfast, Me. A portland (Ore.) man was hurt fatally at Greenwich, Ct., by a hit-and-run driver. The third death occurred in Providence, R. I.

New Jersey had a death toll of six persons, two of whom died in a head-on collision of motorcycles. A 45-year-old man and his wife were killed when their automobile was struck by a train near Wildwood.

California reported seven deaths, with three persons hurt seriously. Three were killed in San Francisco, one a pedestrian hit by a woman driver. Two died at Indio, Cal., and two men at Los Angeles, where a boy also was hurt seriously.

John Barrymore Sued for Divorce

Wife Seeks All Community Property, Valued at Half-Million

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Dolores Costello Barrymore sued her actor husband, John Barrymore, for divorce and demanded all their community property, valued at about $500,000.

Barrymore, cruising on the Atlantic with New York friends, was declared in the suit to have an earning capacity which in one year, 1934 exceeded $350,000.

The divorce action, which followed many reports of a rift between the blonde former screen actress and Barrymore, charged him with physical violence, excessive drinking and failure to provide for their two children.

Mrs. Barrymore, daughter of Maurice Costello, former matinee idol, also asked custody of the children, $5,000 a month for their support and herself and $10,000 for her lawyers.

Barrymore's cruise guests include 19-year-old Elaine Barrie, who became acquainted with him after writing him a note when he was in a hospital recently.

The Barrymores married November 24, 1928. Their children are Dolores, five, and John Blyth Barrymore Jr., three.

Mrs. Barrymore charged her husband had struck her several times in the last two years. He also used profane and abusive language to her and drank liquor to no extent causing her "great mental suffering," she said.

Home Clubs

Green Laseter

The Green Laseter Home Demonstration club met at the home of Mrs. George Johnson on May 7. We had a very interesting meeting. The house was called to order by the president, Mrs. A. M. Blevins.

Song a Home in the Country, and our Hempstead county song, Mrs. T. Cumbie Sr. led in devotional. The roll call was answered by 22 members. There were two new members added to the roll, Miss Clara Ellis and Miss Mary Rogers. Four visitors were present: Mrs. Kelly Gray, Mrs. Henry Bearden, Mrs. Willis Cobb and Mrs. Marshall Gentry. There were 12 of our members absent. We hope to have them all with us next meeting.

The dress contest was discussed briefly and Miss Griffin called for contestants to enter. Those that entered were as follows: Miss Mary Rogers, afternoon dress; Miss Clara Ellis, afternoon dress; Mrs. Robertson, afternoon dress; Mrs. Earl Wolf, afternoon dress; Mrs. Clifford Lane, afternoon dress; Mrs. Riley Leavallen, house dress.

Our demonstration was making strawberry preserves. It was interesting to all. While Mrs. George Johnson and Miss Griffin were getting everything ready in the kitchen, the rest all gathered around the piano, played and sang beautiful hymns. Every body seemed to enjoy the singing. We went into the kitchen and watched Miss Griffin make the preserves.

After we were dismissed from the kitchen we all went out into the yard and saw the many beautiful things Mrs. Johnson has been doing in the way of improvements to her yard. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. T. Cumbie Jr. June 4.

State Tournament

(Continued from Page One)

would rest between the following golfers:

Curtis Collier, Fort Smith, a terrific driver and equipped with a sound short game.

Steve Creekmore, Fort Smith, who has played the course so often he is almost as familiar with it as his home links.

Ben Mayo, Fort Smith High School coach, who went to the finals against Collier last year.

Jack Timin, Little Rock, former captain of the University of Texas golf team and reported at the top of his game.

Harrow Smith, Little Rock, who has been burning up his home course for the past month.

J. K. Wadley, Texarkana, the "grand old man of Arkansas golf," who shows pay 73 day in and day out.

Arthur Temple, Texarkana, runner-up to Creekmore the last time the event was held here.

Collins Gaines Jr., Texarkana, the Washington and Lee youngster, who has come to the fore during the past two years, climaxing his campaign by winning the Country Club championship this year.

Trevor Caven, Texarkana, another University of Texas product who always shoots close to par. Caven was nosed out by Gaines for the club title.

Several Dark Horses
The dark horse may be produced from anyone of the following Texarkana youngsters, all of whom are capable of reeling off rounds in the 70's: George Bell, Robert Murphy, Billy Mullin, Paul Bevere Jr., Aubrey Harper and Jimmie Jones.

Match play opening Tuesday will be at 18 holes for the first two rounds. The semi-finals on Wednesday and the championship match Thursday will be 36 holes.

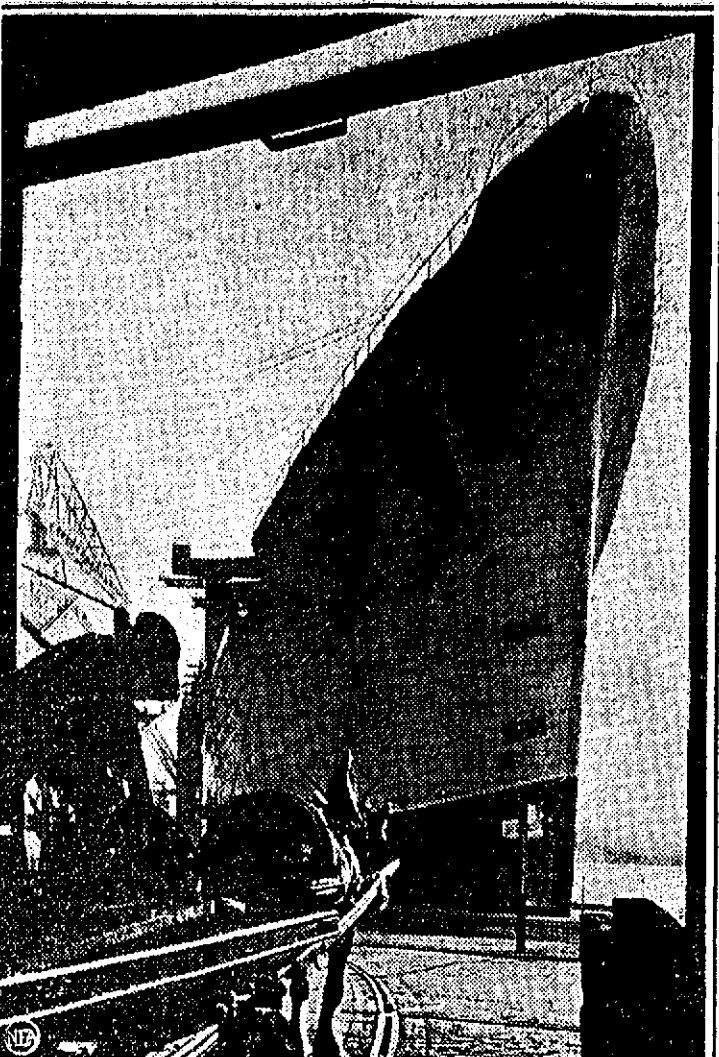

A person who is now 20 years old and who sleeps about eight hours each night, has 16 years of sleep ahead of him, if he lives to the age of 70.

A young fur seal is a "pup." When a male grows up he is a "bachelor" until he takes a mate, after which he is called a "bull." Several "cows" are known as a "barn," and they occupy a "rookery."

A new whirling microscope, used by scientists to compare different groups of bacteria, permits one to look two ways at once.

More steel was used by the canning industry in 1932 than by the railroad industry.

"Queen Mary's" Bow to Tradition

The "Queen Mary," Britain's challenge to supremacy of merchant shipping, follows the tradition of English ships by having a sharp knife-like bow instead of a bulbous streamlined one like her speedy rivals, the Rex, Europa and Normandie. The just completed bow is pictured above at Glasgow, where the hull is being prepared for service.

Bonus Issue Dead for This Session

Leaders Secretly Prefer Final Showdown Next January

WASHINGTON — The president's veto in the opinion of most Democratic and Republican leaders, has halted the movement for prepayment of the veterans' bonus and for outright inflation of the currency for the time being at least.

There will be a caucus of bonusites Tuesday to discuss a program but for them the prospect is far from encouraging since Mr. Roosevelt has made it known that he will veto any bill which may come to him with a bonus rider. The inflationists have suffered a no less serious setback by the president's comprehensive condemnation of the issuance of paper money unsecured by specie.

Both the bonusites and the inflationists see little hope of success at this session of congress and are in reality looking forward to the next session, which meets in January, for a renewal of their drive for the bonus and for cheaper money. As the next session will be held on the eve of the presidential election these groups figure that they will be in a position to put both parties on the spot.

Hinges On Business
Whether they will be stronger next winter than today depends a good deal upon economic conditions at the time. If the country should have made no substantial progress out of the depression despite the pump priming of the work-relief act, demands for inflation and for the bonus conceivably would command greater support than today. If, however, business continues to improve it would be even more difficult than at present to get bonus and inflation legislation through congress.

Meantime members of congress are

Osteopaths Hold Annual Election

Dr. W. D. English, Texarkana, State Association's New President-Elect

LITTLE ROCK.—Dr. William D. English of Texarkana was elected president-elect of the Osteopathic Association of Arkansas at the closing session of the two-day convention here.

Dr. English will not assume office until May, 1936. Dr. A. H. Sellers, Pine Bluff, was elected vice president of the association. Dr. W. C. Harper elected president-elect last year, was installed as president. Dr. Etta E. Champlin, retiring president, was elected trustee of the association.

Other officers are: Dr. Chester C. Chapin of Little Rock, re-elected secretary-treasurer; Dr. Chas. A. Champlin of Hope, elected statistician, and Dr. R. M. Mitchell of Texarkana, elected sergeant-at-arms.

Dr. Arthur Becker of Kirksville, Mo., past president of the American Osteopathic Society, spoke on "Osteopathic Technique" and conducted a roundtable discussion on technique and subjects taken up during the convention.

Dr. J. L. Bell of Helena spoke on "The Injection Method of Treating Hernia." The annual report of the secretary-treasurer was given by Dr. Chapin.

The 1936 convention of the association will be held in Little Rock in May.

Conway's Fire Loss 5 Months Only $937

CONWAY, Ark.—(AP)—With fire losses during the first five months of 1935 amounting to only $937, the Conway Fire Department is attempting to set a new record low mark. To date the department has responded to 32 alarms.

Zachary Taylor did not learn of his nomination for the presidency until almost a month after adjournment of the convention, because of his failure to pay postage on the notification letter.

Birds do not have to hold to their perches while they sleep. Automatic tendon action locks their feet securely.

A corporation of meat producers, with a capital of $2,000,000, subscribed by cattle raisers, has been created by the Argentine ministry of agriculture.

taking stock of the political effects of the defeat of the bonus bill. Reports have reached the capital that veterans are preparing a go into politics on a large scale. They have come to the conclusion, it was said, that they can hope for little further legislation in their behalf if they hold aloof and maintain a non-partisan position.

Hearts Flutter at New Idol

Romantic fans were dismayed when Maurice Chevalier turned his back forever upon American movies, but not for long. For now their hearts go pit-a-pat again over a new French idol. He's Charles Boyer, a hove, who is said to have oodles of attraction for the girls, even though he's married to Pat Paterson.

The Gulf Stream carries 3000 times as much water as the Mississippi.

Shoes Stolen, Owner Saves Drowning Man

NEW YORK—(AP)—Mike Carr, 30, of the Seamen's Church Institute, sold blood in a transfusion for enough money to buy a new pair of shoes. Emerging from the store wearing his new footgear he sauntered toward the East river and arrived just in time to see Thomas Ryan, 60, also of the Seamen's Church Institute, floundering in the water.

Carr removed his new shoes before he dived to the rescue. When he came back the shoes were gone.

Both Carr and Ryan were taken to a hospital suffering from submersion.

Boys are not as good sleepers as girls, according to tests made by an Atlantic physician. His conclusion comes after 150,000 hours of watching children sleep, by means of special electrical instruments.

GIFTS

for the Graduate
Springtime in Paris
Compacts $1.25
Airmail Hose in new summer shades.... $1.00
Dusting Powder
25c 50c and..... $1.00
Zipper Bill Folds
$1.50, $1.00 to..... 89c
All Leather
See Our Windows for
Other Suggestions
John P. Cox Drug Co.
We Give Eagle Stamps
Phone 84 We Deliver

FLASH

Special Purchase

LADIES WHITE

Purses

100 Smart New Bags to Sell at

49c

PENNEY'S

J. C. PENNEY COMPANY, Incorporated

Mac West's "Goin' to Town"

SAEGER

MAURICE CHEVALIER
—in—
"FOLIES BERGERE"

TUES (Matinee & Nite)

Times SQUARE LADY

with VIRGINIA BRUCE
ROBERT TAYLOR
Helen Twelvetree
Isabel Jewell
Pinky Tomlin

Wed's the BIG NITE

2:30 Matinee
15c

3-PIECE GARDEN SET

WEEDER
DIGGING FORK
TROWEL

While They Last
LIMIT 2 SETS TO A CUSTOMER

17¢

PER SET of 3

Well made... Green Baked-Enamel Finish --Smooth Wood Cap on End of Handles For Hand Comfort.

HOPE HARDWARE CO.

Skip

the rest

When a cigarette is milder and tastes better — and stays that way pack after pack

They Satisfy

Bard of Avon

HORIZONTAL

2 Who was called the "Bard of Avon"?

12 Smooth.

14 Perfect pattern.

15 To affirm.

17 Persia.

18 Name.

19 Queen of heaven.

20 Hissing sound.

21 Dry.

22 Mooley apple.

24 Piece of cloth.

26 Examination.

28 Iniquities.

29 Ingredient in borax.

31 Carried.

34 Large ante-lope.

35 Excuse.

36 Wigwag.

37 Indian boat.

38 Owns.

39 Being.

40 Postscript.

41 Therefore.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

10 Always.

11 "Macbeth" is one of his famous.

13 Silkworm.

16 Epoch.

21 Telephonic transmitters.

23 Disjoints.

25 Sound.

27 East Indian plant.

29 Olive shrub.

30 Knocks.

32 Prong.

33 Black.

40 Baby carriage.

42 Hodgepodge.

43 Sorrowful.

44 Mongrel.

45 Constellation.

46 Upright shaft.

47 Prophet.

48 Sloths.

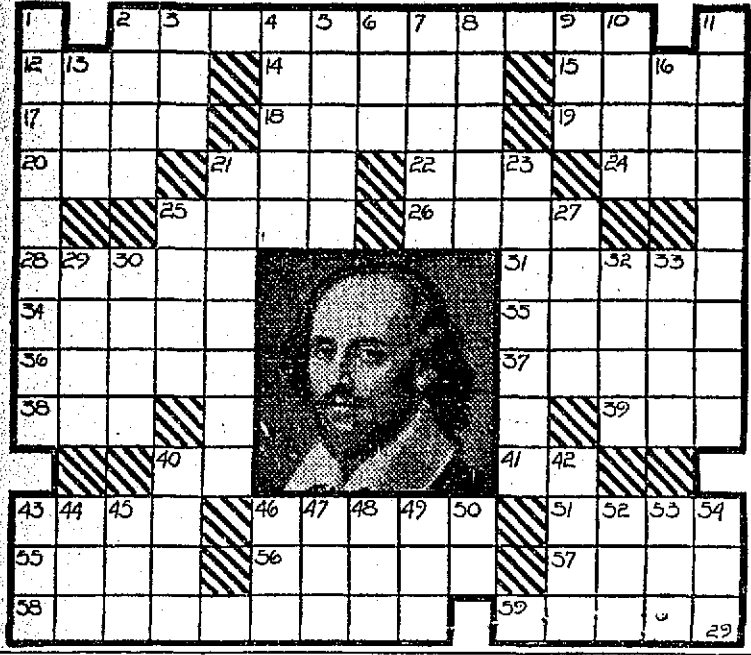

49 Perched.

50 Corpse.

52 War flyer.

53 Tennis fence.

54 Onager.

China in Uproar Over Weird Story "Girl Changed Into Boy" by Shock

Out of China Comes This Bizarre Mystery Which Has Stirred a Furore Across the Land as Answer Awaited

By L. S. GILMAN
NEA Service Special Correspondent
SHANGHAI—All China, forgetting forgetting for the moment famine, flood, earthquake, and foreign aggression, is intent on the question of whether Yao Ching-ping is a girl or a boy, and if so, why.

Yao Ching-ping is a slight, pale-checked, almost-eyed young person. Six months ago Yao was a 20-year-old Tientsin girl living quietly in the cloistered courts of her father's house, sewing, reading the classics of Chinese poetry, existing pallidly as do other Chinese girls of her rank and station.

She had a sweetheart, a young officer with the Northern army, with which her father was also serving as an officer. She had planned to enter a girls' school.

But suddenly came belated word that Yao's father had been killed in Manchuria. The cloistered house was thrown into mourning. Plans for school and marriage were temporarily shattered.

Yao seemed to spend more time planning revenge for her father's death than in the seemingly mourning of a well-taught Chinese girl.

For weeks she brooded, retiring into the inmost courts of her dead father's home. Revenge—a man's revenge—was in her heart.

A few weeks ago a young man appeared in Tientsin. He said he was Yao Ching-ping, son of a former officer, and that he was going to Nanking to join the army. Rumors flew about Tientsin, spread until most of China buzzed with excitement over word that a girl had become a boy.

Sex Changes in Moment
A Chinese general was quoted as saying, "I knew this person's father well. This person, when a child, was undoubtedly a girl. I am positive of that. Little by little the change took place, until the last stage, which was most sudden and occurred during a thunderstorm."

"After the convulsion of a great clap of thunder, this person appeared to have become a manly youth. Superstitious people here think there has been an act of the gods. I say it is for science to decide."

But as for Yao's sweetheart, he decided for himself. Dazed, he went away from Tientsin in a hurry. And Yao set out for Nanking and a military career.

Nation Is Amazed
Yao's journey created a sensation. The vernacular papers were full of the story. People flocked to see the strange traveler. A visit was made to Shanghai, which rocked with controversy over the phenomenon.

Yao submitted to private examinations by Chinese physicians, who declared that Mr. Yao was indeed the proper title for the person who had been Miss Yao. The features, had altered, become masculine, the voice had changed, there was a hint of a beard. American and European physicians were interested, but were refused opportunity to examine Yao. The strange individual continued with the project to join the army, and application with the government is pending.

Other Cases Known
China buzzes with excitement over the latest example of a phenomenon which crops up from time to time all over the world. Last year there were two similar cases, one in France, one in Kittinging, Pa.

In France, Alice Henriette Access of Lille was aided by 14 operations to become Henri Access after nature had apparently hesitated between the two. And at Kittinging, Clara Schreckengost, 20-year-old abnormal "daughter" of a Pennsylvania backwoods farmer, was also aided by a series of operations in becoming definitely a boy instead of a girl.

In the case now agitating China, there is no evidence that medical help was used, and this has added fuel to the mystery.

BARBS

New instrument reveals there are approximately 8.8 square feet of skin on the average human body. The figures probably varies a bit during furniture moving season.

Congressmen are advised by John N. Garner to override the presidential veto. That man's here again.

New York police are seeking culprit who wrecked theater. Evidently a man who lacked self-control when someone climbed over his knees.

Strange as it may seem, husbands nor spring house-cleaning have any place in the plot of that movie, "The Invisible Man."

Women whose "thinking" brains were removed, reports Kentucky doctor, insists on talking about one thing, despite efforts to change the conversation. Well, why doesn't her husband get her the hat?

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

By AHERN

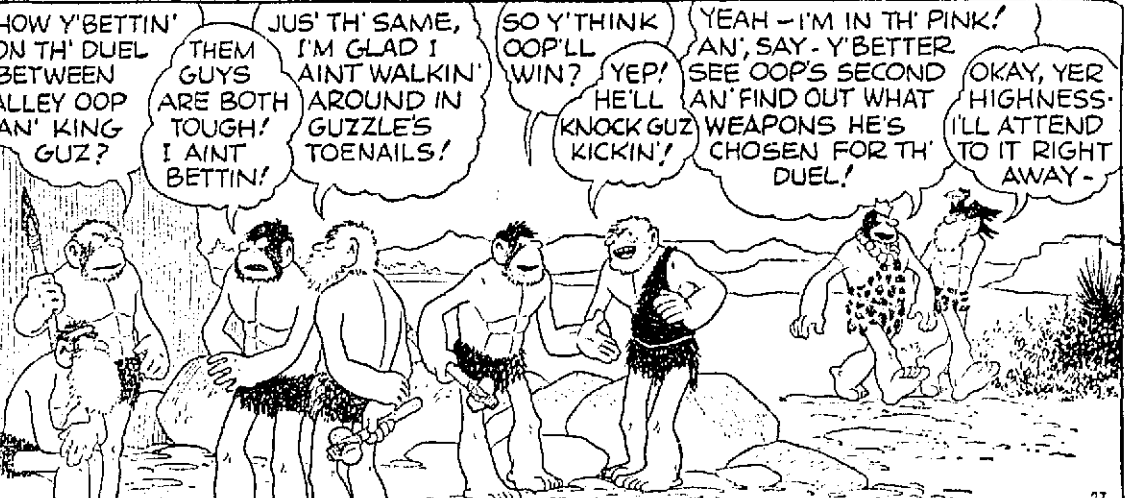

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

Gangway!

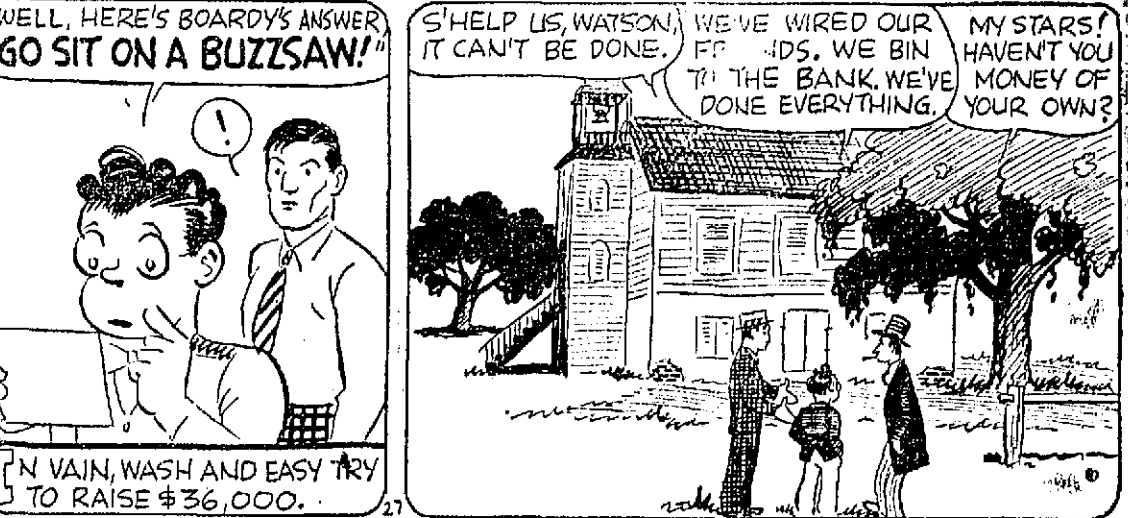

ALLEY OOP

Among the Missing

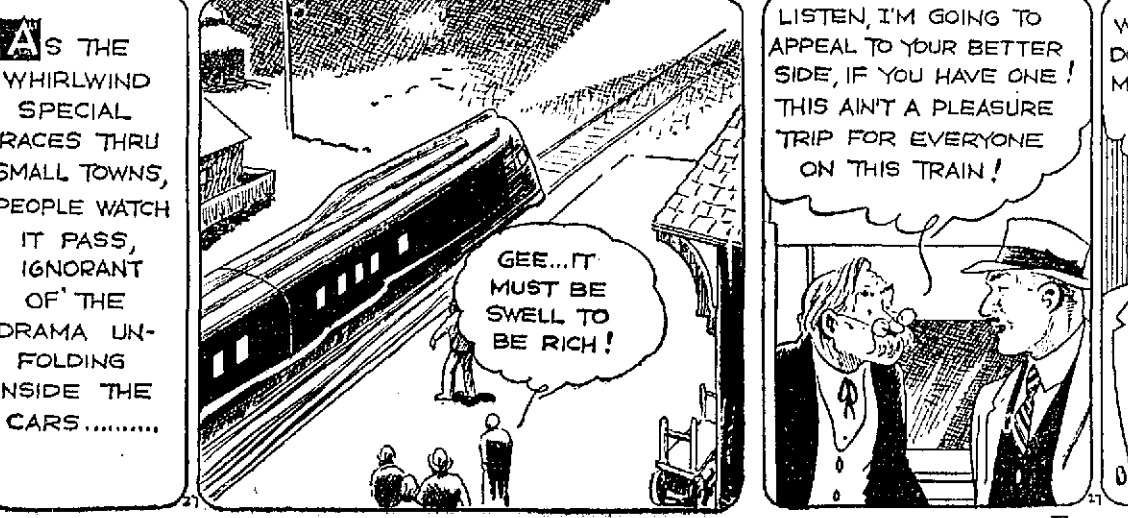

WASH TUBS

A Pal

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

An Appeal

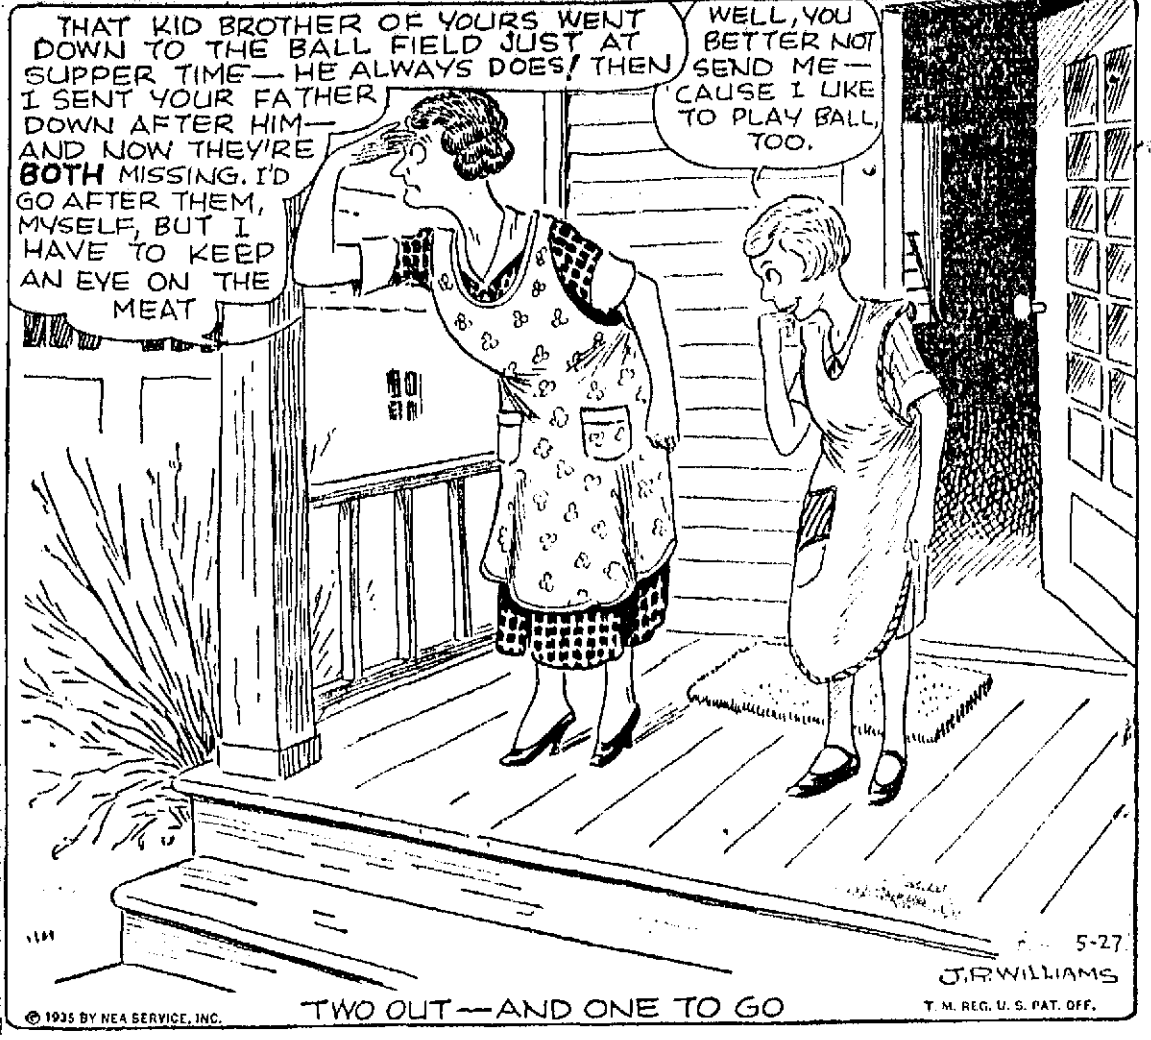

THE NEWFANGLES (Mom'n Pop)

Emmy Mops Up

OUT OUR WAY

By WILLIAMS

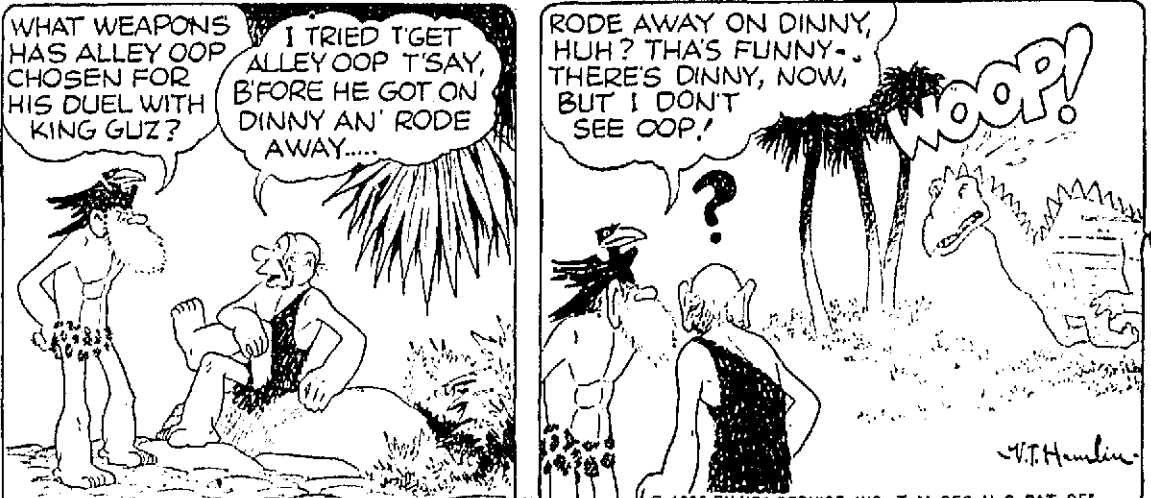

TWO OUT—AND ONE TO GO

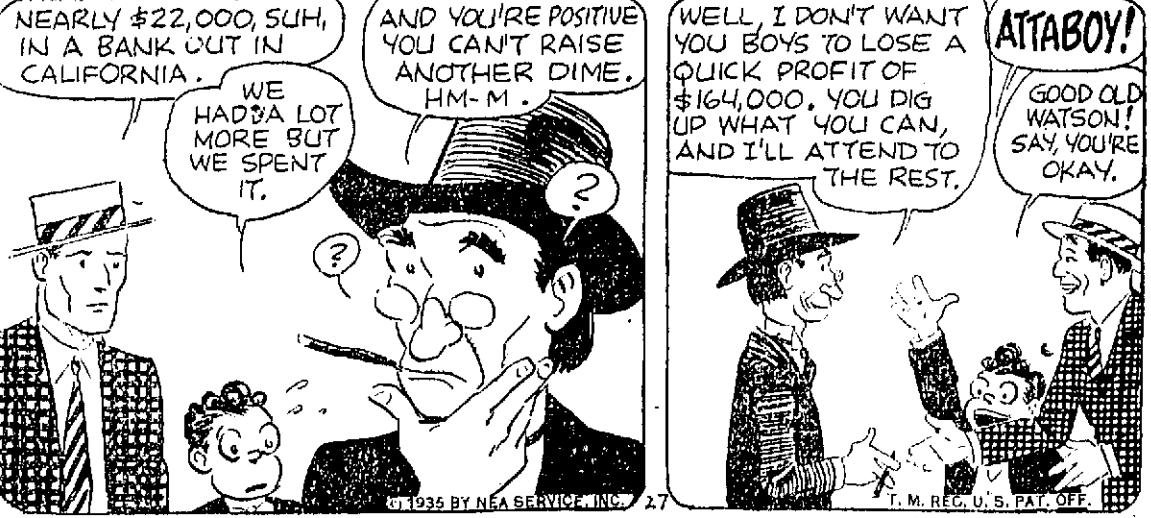

By HAMLIN

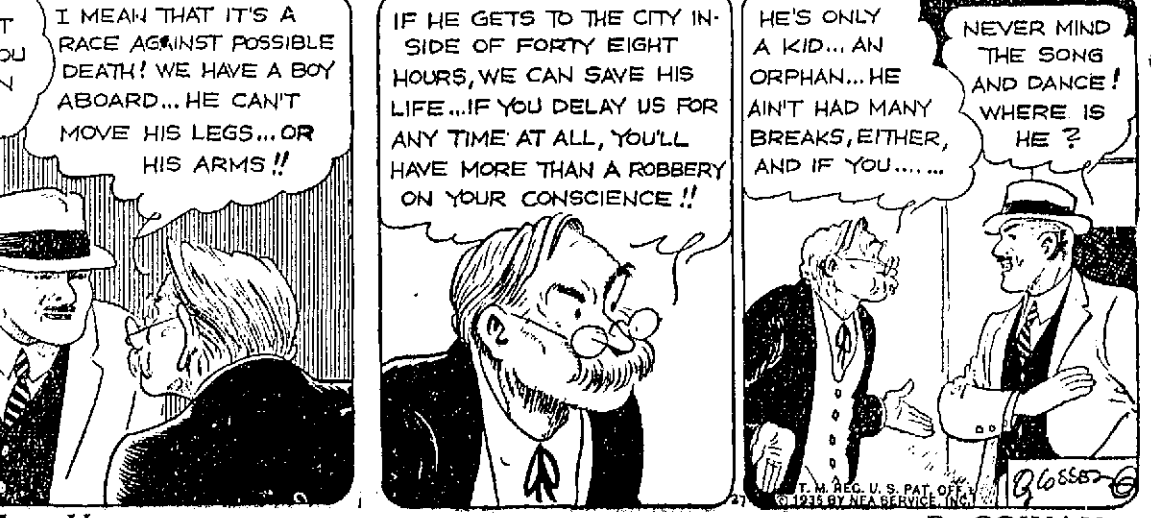

By MARTIN

By CRANE

By BLOSSER

By COWAN

Sell It! Find It! Rent It! Buy It! in the Hope Star

MARKET PLACE

Remember, the more you tell, the quicker you sell.

1 time, 10c line, min. 30c
For consecutive insertions, minimum of 3 lines in one ad
3 times, 6c line, min. 50c
6 times, 5c line, min. 90c
26 times, 3 1/2c line, min. $2.76
(Average 1/2 words to the line)

NOTE—Want ads will be accepted with the understanding that the bill is payable on presentation of statement, before the first publication.

Phone 768

NOTICE

TAKEN UP—Black muley headed Jersey heifer. Owner may claim same by paying for this notice and for keep. C. M. Miller, Washington, Ark. 25-31p

FURNISHED HOUSE FOR RENT
Phone 85
For Appointment

WANTED

Highest price paid for cattle and green hides. Moore's Market. 14-11

SERVICES OFFERED

Money to loan for repairing, remodeling and building homes within the city limits of Hope. Low rate of interest and easy payments. Hope Federal Savings and Loan Association. 5-11-30tc

4 Record Smashers in 500-Mile Race

Frame, Meyer, Cummings and DePaolo to Enter Contest

INDIANAPOLIS.—"New Record!" That's the shout that sends the thrills up and down the backs of the cheering hordes of spectators at the world's greatest Race Classic May 30. It's the climax—after almost five hours of this roaring, grinding battle of speed under a scorching sun.

Four great record smashers stand out—all of whom will be in there May 30—able, experienced, daring—fighting for that $100,000 pot of gold. Pete DePaolo roared in with an average of 101.13 m.p.h. in 1925—which stood as a record for six years—till Fred Frame smashed the record in 1932 with 104.14 miles per hour.

The next year Louis Meyer, twice winner of the race and three times national champion, set a new mark of 104.162 m.p.h.

And then in 1934 came dashing "Wild Bill" Cummings, credited with 170 m.p.h. on the "back stretch" of the big track—to blaze the present world 500-mile track record of 104.863 miles per hour.

Many innovations in the high-powered racing creations have had a part in these achievements. Chief of all is the development of Firestone Engineers, according to these four who have emerged from the smoke of this supreme contest as immortals of the racing world, and all of who stress the importance of confidence they felt in the safety of their Firestone tire equipment.

AUTO SUPPLY CO.
Headquarters for
McQuay-Norris Products
Globe Batteries
Century Tires
218 E. Third St. Phone 383

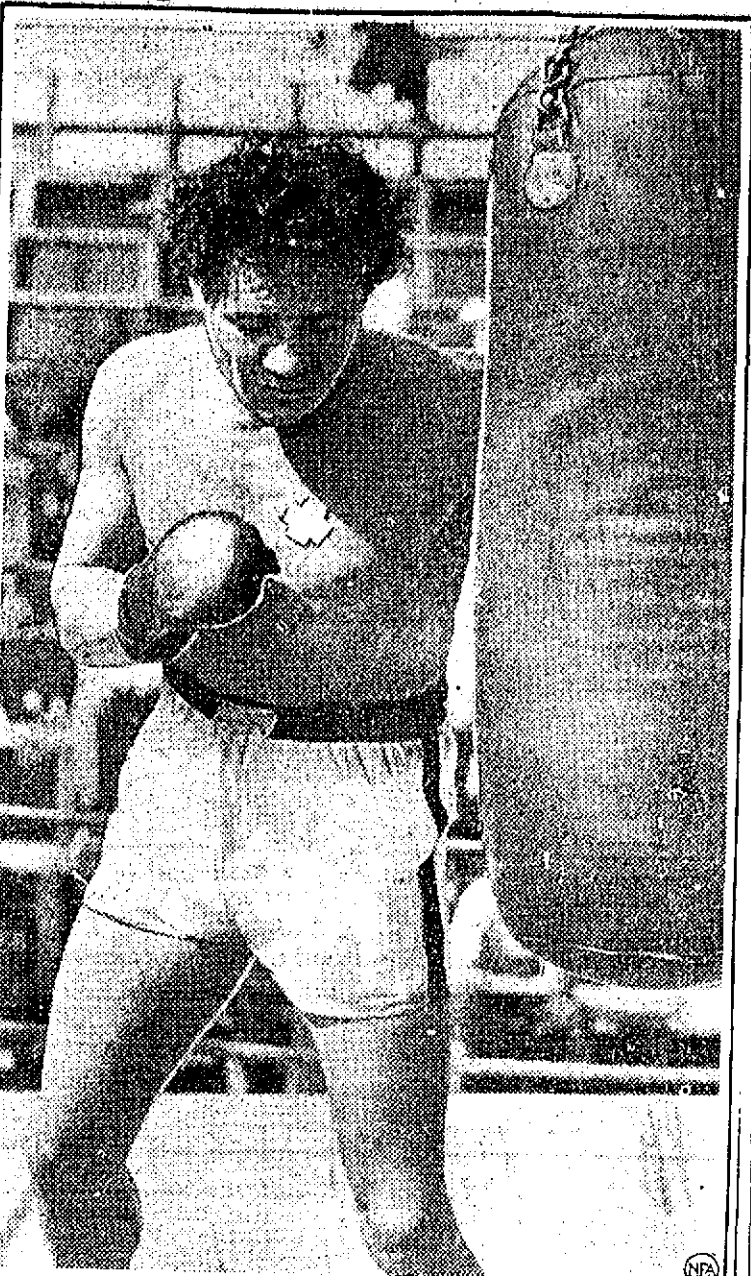

Constipated 30 Years Aided By Old Remedy

"For thirty years I had constipation. Suffering food from stomach choked me. Since taking Adlerika I am a new person. Constipation is a thing of the past."—Alice Burns, John S. Gibson Drug Co.

FOR SALE

Boats and Boat Lumber
Made from Clear
Cypress Trees
J. L. Williams
& Sons Lumber Co.
Phone 840

Champ Puts Heart, Slightly Singed, Into His Work

The cross of adhesive tape marks the spot where the shot heard around the world seared the fair flesh of Heavyweight Champion Maxie Baer. The wadding in the radio prop gun that went off accidentally and caused all the hullabaloo didn't do much damage, however, for the ballyhooed Butcher Boy is working with vim in his training camp at Asbury Park, N. J., for his bout with Jimmy Braddock, June 13.

Quins Will Have Birthday Tuesday

Famous Five Babies to Be One Year Old—Plan Celebration

CALLANDER, Ont. — (AP) — Brush fires crackled Monday along a zig zag front in the direction of the little hospital where the Dionne quintuplets' first birthday anniversary will be celebrated Tuesday.

Billows of smoke rolled from the burning second growth stand of spruce, birch and poplar across the back area of the farm of Oliva Dionne and in sight of his house where, one year ago Tuesday, the five famous babies were born.

The little brown hospital, with the British flag flying from a flagstaff before it, is across the road from the farmhouse, and the fire was still confined to the opposite side of the sandy highway.

There has been no rain for days.

U.S. to Sell Bonds to Highest Bidder

$100,000,000 Issue to Bear Same Date as Block Sold in 1934

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—The government asked the country for a $100,000,000 loan in a security offering which involved the seldom-used privilege of selling bonds to "highest bidders."

Secretary Morgenthau announced the new borrowing, designed to build up a shrinking Treasury cash balance. He offered for sale $100,000,000 in three per cent bonds of 1936-48, to supplement and bear the same date as $225,000,000 of this issue sold June 15, 1934.

Bonds at Premium.
But since these bonds now are quoted on financial markets, at more than $103, Morgenthau said that all bids for the additional issue will be thrown out if they fall below the par value of the securities.

The Treasury declined to discuss officially its reasons for selling the bonds on a bid basis, but other quarters said it was an obvious desire to take advantage of the premium which the three per cent issue now was bringing on public markets.

It was recalled that the Treasury, during World war days, had offered bonds to the highest bidder, a policy since employed in sales of Home Owners Loan Corporation and Farm Credit Administration securities.

The new offering, officials said, would not interfere with the regular quarterly financing due June 13. At that time $416,000,000 in three per cent notes matures in addition to unfunded portions of the called First Liberty 3½'s, which will require an additional cash outlay of about $320,000,000.

The Treasury announced also that $1,008,000,000 of the outstanding First Liberties called for June 15 have been turned in for lower interest bearing securities. Of the total, $864,000,000 was exchanged for five-year 1 5/8 per cent notes, and the remainder for 20-25 year bonds which pay 2 7/8 per cent.

Coincidentally, the Treasury said subscription books for the 1½ per cent bonds of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation will close next Wednesday night.

This conversion offering was announced last week. The new bonds can be obtained only through payment in Home Owners' Loan Corporation four per cent bonds called for redemption on July 1, 1935.

7 Power Naval Parley Likely

Announcement of Anglo-German Conversations Is Confirmed

LONDON.—(AP)—Well-informed quarters said Monday that the British government was considering the possibility of holding a seven-power naval conference before the end of this year.

This statement followed a confirmation of an announcement in Berlin that Anglo-German naval talks would open here June 4. These talks are expected to determine whether Germany and Russia could be included successfully in a round-table conference with the five naval treaty powers—the United States, Great Britain, Japan, France, and Italy.

Great Britain is regarded as adhering firmly to the view that a conference of at least five powers must be held in 1935 as required under the London treaty and also under the Washington treaty of 1922 in view of Japan's denunciation last year of the latter pact.

The Anglo-German talks will follow on lines similar to the previous preliminary conversations here with the Americans, Japanese, French, and Italians. These nations will be kept fully informed of the talks with the German delegates and later their views will be asked on the question of including Germany in the round table conference.

"Sommer Island" once was the name for Bermuda. That name was given "as well in respect of the continual tropical ays, as in remembrance of Sir George Somers, who died there," according to old records.

and the heavily wooded terrain which surrounds the hospital area offers quick fuel for the flames.

Because there was no wind during the night to whip it forward, the fire moved slowly. Officials in charge of the hospital said there was not the slightest danger to the building and least of all to the babies themselves, for they could be quickly moved if an emergency required.

The Dionne homestead is in the path of the fire, should a strong wind blow out of the west, but the house and huge barn are at least two hundred yards from the timbered areas, and a quarter mile from the fire.

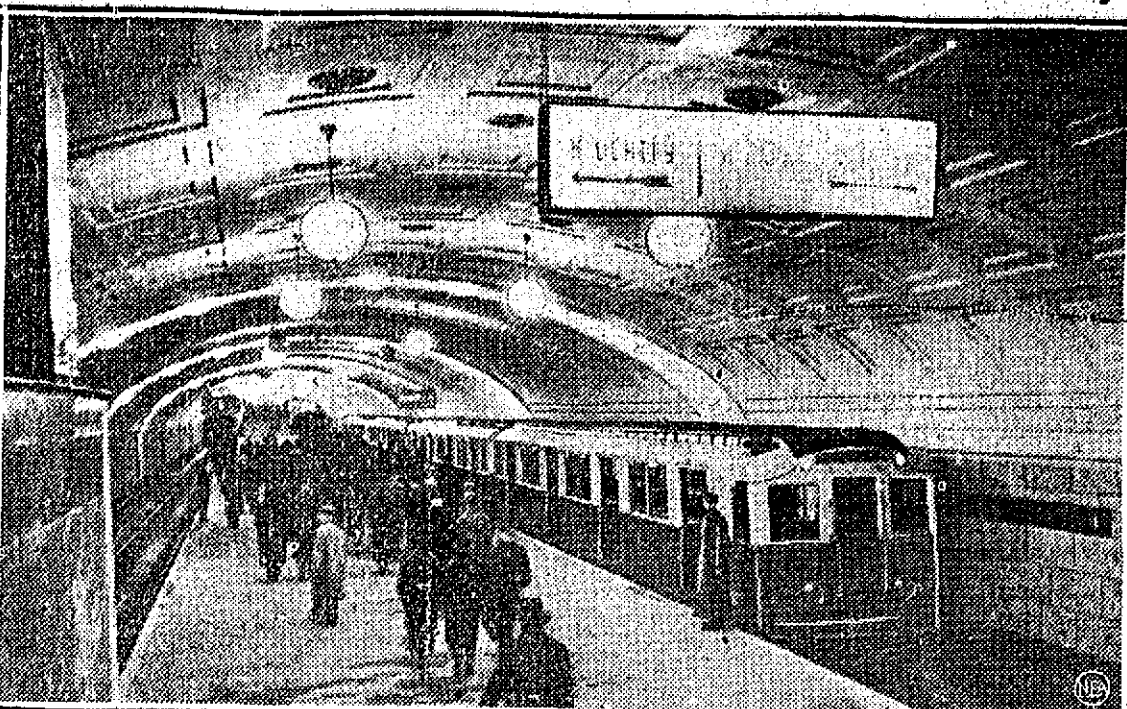

Old Shoes Made New
—at—
Parson's Shoe Shop
111 South Main
Phone 667
We call for and deliver.

Learn Real Motoring
Pleasure . . . Try A
Tankful of
THAT GOOD
GULF GASOLINE

M. S. BATES, Distributor

Moscow Rides in World's Most Beautiful Subway

A monumental feat in construction speed and engineering skill achieved by the Soviet government, the great Moscow subway, nearly eight miles long, is traversed daily by thousands of passengers since its recent opening. This picture gives striking evidence of the effort to make it the most beautiful underground traffic artery in the world. The Lenin Library station, shown here, has striking lighting effects, lofty vaulted ceilings, and walls and pillars sheathed with marble in varied colors.

Heavy Rain Hits Panhandle Area

Rain Half Inch Deep, Hail Piles Put Two Feet in Places

AMARILLO, Texas.—(AP)—Part of Texas' dust bowl was turned into a lake over the week-end when heavy rain, hail and twisted winds wrought havoc in the eastern portion of the Panhandle.

The rain averaged from half an inch to six inches, hail piled up two feet in places, and livestock was killed.

The rain continued in a wide area Sunday night, extending to the Lubbock section of the south plains.

Clarendon, Wellington, Pampa, Panhandle, Groom and Borger were in the 100-mile long and 40-mile wide storm area.

Several small buildings and farm homes were blown down between Panhandle and Jellyton and many cattle and other livestock were killed by the wind and hail.

Rain amounting to five inches fell from Morse, north of Amarillo, to Spearman. Rains on the south plains included Plainview, Quitaque, Shamrock, Memphis and other points. Childless also got a good rain.

This country has more than 160 municipal police radio stations, 34 state police radio stations, and 34 state police radio services in operation.

You'll Find it Cheaper to Have Your Shoes Repaired at—
WITT'S SHOE SHOP
105 South Elm Phone 674

Vast Difference in May Weather

Much Rain This Season as Compared to Drouth in 1934

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—May weather did a back flip this year, and many a farmer who sweated through drouth last year is shivering through mud this May.

J. B. Kinser of the Weather Bureau believes the farmers' outlook is "immeasurably better than last year." Kinser says that when a drouth is broken, a good rainy spell usually follows.

He describes 1935's May as "diametrically opposed" to the weather of a year ago. Last May was the hottest and driest on record over a large area; this May is cool and damp.

Except in the southeastern states, where May temperatures have been a little warmer than usual, and in the Far Northwest, where the temperature was about normal, Kinser says America has dripped and shivered.

The coolness is unfavorable, Kinser explains, "but not seriously so because of the moisture. The dry weather has been thoroughly relieved, and there is an unusually large amount of soil moisture."

Corn and cotton planters are reported somewhat handicapped by the heavy rainfall, which has gone as high as four inches in a week in some places.

In Iowa, however, the Weather Bureau records represent planting as only two days behind normal.

But in large sections of the Ohio valley, corn planting has been practically impossible, and Kinser says very little has been planted in much of the area, which covers the states of Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri.

Frost has not been a serious menace, although the temperature has been about 10 degrees below normal over the country.

PROTECT YOUR LIFE AND THE LIVES OF OTHERS!

There are three questions you should ask yourself about the tires you buy:

- 1—"Will the non-skid tread give me the greatest traction and protection against skidding?"
- 2—"Are they built to give me the greatest blowout protection?"
- 3—"Without sacrificing these two important safety features will they give me longer mileage, thus making them the most economical tires I can buy?"

Answer No. 1—Harvey S. Firestone early realized the value of tire traction and safety and was the first to design an All Rubber Non-Skid Tire. Through the years Firestone has led the way in the design and development of tires with most effective non-skid treads.

Firestone does not depend solely on traction and non-skid tests made by its own engineers—it employs a leading University to make impartial tests for non-skid efficiency of its tires, and their most recent report shows that Firestone High Speed Tires stop the car 15% quicker than the best of all popular makes of tires.

Answer No. 2—Blowout protection must be built into a tire. Friction and heat within the tire is the greatest cause of blowouts. Firestone protects its tires from friction and heat by a patented process which soaks every cord and insulates every strand with pure liquid rubber. This is an additional process known as Gum-Dipping, by which every 100 pounds of cotton cords absorb eight pounds of rubber. This extra process costs more and is not used in any other make of tire.

Leading race drivers investigate the inbuilt qualities of the tires they use, because their very lives depend upon their tires, and they always select Firestone Tires for their daring speed runs. In fact, Firestone Tires have been on the winning cars in the gruelling Indianapolis 500-mile race for fifteen consecutive years, and they were on the 5,000-pound car that Ab Jenkins drove 3,000 miles in 23½ hours on the hot salt beds at Lake Bonneville, Utah, at an average speed of 127.2 miles per hour, without tire trouble of any kind. These amazing performance records are proof of the greatest blowout protection ever known.

Answer No. 3—Thousands of car owners reporting mileage records of 40,000 to 75,000 miles, is proof of the long mileage and greater economy by equipping with Firestone High Speed Tires. Let these unequalled performance records be your buying guide.

Go to the Firestone Auto Supply and Service Store or Firestone Tire Dealer and let him equip your car with Firestone Tires, the safest and most economical tires built.

Volume—Direct Purchasing—Straight Line Manufacturing and Efficient and Economical System of Distributing to our 500 Stores and to 30,000 Dealers, enables Firestone to give you greater values at lowest prices

HIGH SPEED TYPE
We select from our enormous stocks of raw materials the best and highest grade rubber and cotton for the High Speed Tire. In our factory we select the most experienced and skilled tire makers to build this tire. It is accurately balanced and rigidly inspected and we know it is as perfect as human ingenuity can make it.

SIZE	PRICE	4.50-20
4.50-21	$7.75
4.75-19	8.20
5.25-18	9.75
5.50-17	10.70
6.00-16	11.95

Other Sizes Proportionately Low

CENTURY PROGRESS TYPE	OLDFIELD TYPE	SENTINEL TYPE	COURIER TYPE
Designed and built with high grade materials. Equal or superior to any so-called First Grade. Super or Deluxe line of tires built, regardless of name, brand or by whom manufactured, or at what price offered for sale.	Designed and built with high grade materials. Equal or superior to any special brand tire made for mass distributors and advertised as their first line tire but without manufacturer's name or guarantee.	This tire is good quality and workmanship and carries the Firestone name and guarantee, and is equal or superior to any tire made in this price class.	This tire is built of good quality materials and workmanship. It carries the Firestone name and guarantee and is sold as low as many inferior tires that are manufactured to sell at a price.
SIZE PRICE 4.50-21 $7.30 4.75-19 7.75 5.25-18 9.20 5.50-17 10.40	SIZE PRICE 4.50-21 $6.65 5.00-19 7.55 5.25-18 8.40 5.50-17 9.20	SIZE PRICE 4.50-21 $6.05 4.75-19 6.40 5.25-18 7.60 5.50-17 8.75	SIZE PRICE 4.40-21 $4.75 4.50-21 5.25 4.75-19 5.55

OTHER SIZES PROPORTIONATELY LOW

AUTO SUPPLIES AT BIG SAVINGS
Our large volume enables us to save you money on every auto supply need for your car. All Firestone Auto Supply and Service Stores, and many of our large tire dealers, have complete stocks, and you have the added convenience and economy of having them applied.

SEAT COVERS 39c	PICNIC JUGS $1.19	CHAMPOIS 39c	SPONGE 15c
BATTERIES As Low As $5.55	MIRROR 39c	BRAKE LINING As Low As $3.30	SEAT PADS 98c
Flashlights 34c	Sun Visors 59c	Pedal Pads 36c	Fender Guide .79c
Nozzles .35c	Bumper Guards 69c	Mirror Cords $1.75	Cigar Lighter .19c up
Wrench Set 71c	SPARK PLUGS 58c	Garden Hose 25 ft.

Firestone Stewart-Warner AUTO RADIO $29.95

Firestone

LISTEN TO JACK PEARL
in a new show with Freddy Rich's Orchestra, every Wednesday, 9 p. m. over Columbia network.

HEMPSTEAD COUNTY LUMBER CO.
Phone 89 Hope, Ark.

Soil Projects to Be Inspected

Visiting Days Arranged in Faulkner County During June

CONWAY, Ark.—(AP)—A series of five visiting days have been arranged for farmers to inspect work being conducted by the soil conservation service in Faulkner county near here. June 4, 5, 6, 7 and 11 have been fixed as the dates for the five groups of farmers to inspect the project. The state was divided into five areas according to soil type and topography to facilitate guiding visitors over the place to view conditions and methods applicable to their respective areas of the state.

Fred C. Newport, regional director, said visiting days and the different counties scheduled to send delegations on days designated follow:

June 4: Benton, Washington, Carroll, Madison, Boone, Newton, Marion, Seary, Baxter, Stone, Fulton and Randolph.

June 5: Crawford, Van Duren, Cleburne, Sebastian, Yell, Logan, Scott, Perry, Saline, Garland, Hot Spring, Montgomery, Independence, Sharp, Izard, Howard, Pike and Polk.

June 6: Franklin, Johnson, Conway, Faulkner, Pulaski, White and Pope.

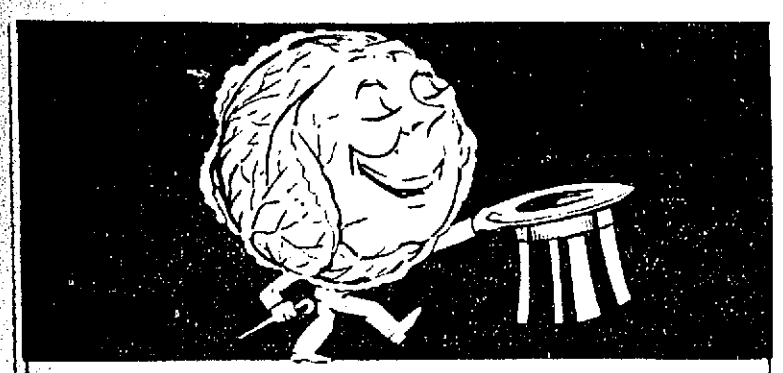

June 7: Sevier, Hempstead, Nevada, Clark, Columbia, Union, Ouchita, Calhoun, Dallas, Grant, Cleveland.

DR. K. R. SPEARMAN
ORTHODONTIST
Straightening Children's Teeth
State Bank Building, Suite 202
Texarkana, Arkansas
Phone 330

Weak Women

MANY women both young and middle-aged suffer from periodic pain in side or back, from catarrhal discharges, heat flashes, they should try that vegetable tonic favorably known for sixty years as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Read this: Mrs. H. W. Mout of 324 So. Thayer St., Oklahoma City, Okla., said: "Some years ago I was in a completely rundown condition. I could hardly eat a thing, and headaches kept me in a state of misery. I suffered from nose bleed also. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription helped me so quickly that I continued its use until I regained my normal health and strength. That was over five years ago. All druggists have new size, tablets 50 cts., liquid $1.00."

COMMON OLD ITCH
Is Still With Us
Prescription No. 200,000 will cure it. It kills the parasites in the skin.
50c
JOHN S. GIBSON
Drug Company
"The REXALL Store"
Phone 63
Hope, Ark. Established 1885

Keeping His Self-Respect

No self-respecting vegetable WANTS to wilt and lose its youthful splendor! Nor does it want to be smothered in a closed container! BUT... watch them perk up in a refrigerator that's AIR-CONDITIONED... with ICE! They'll simply drink up that MOIST, cold, FRESH air that blows over them like an arctic breeze! That same circulating air current will be a boon to meats, milk, and other foods. They'll remain fresh and NATURAL! You'll never see THEM shriveling up or acquiring a dry crust on top!

In exchange for this BETTER refrigeration, foods will give you better HEALTH! You'll save money, too, because AIR-CONDITIONED refrigeration... with ICE... is inexpensive to buy... and inexpensive to operate.

Be kind to your vegetables! Be kind to your pocketbook! Be kind to yourself! Use AIR-CONDITIONED refrigeration... with ICE!

Tune In... THE ICE PARADE
Sunday Evening—7:00 P. M.
WFAA-WBAP—KFXC—WOAI
A feature program by the Southwest's outstanding musicians... a half-hour of entertainment you will thoroughly enjoy.

SOUTHERN ICE CO., Inc.
Phone 72

Four Great Record Smashers in 500-Mile Race May 30—Can They Repeat?

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

—BY RODNEY DUTCHER—

WASHINGTON.—The "power trust" and the Roosevelt administration are engaged in a death struggle which has become one of the bitterest, most significant legislative battles in American history.

Passage of the trust-busting "public utility act of 1935" would mean eventual dissolution of the "power trust" as that term is now loosely applied to the system through which 13 large holding groups control three-fourths of the nation's private electric utility industry.

Behind the holding companies stand the Morgan, Chase National Bank, and other huge financial groups which control them, violently opposing Roosevelt's thus far unswerving effort to "break down the concentration of economic and political power now vested in the power trust."

Few have read the long, complicated bill. Anyone who does will realize why the utilities have been waging a mighty campaign of publicity and backstage effort which knows no precedent.

Plundering Charged

Roosevelt and the various federal agencies involved take the stand that the utility holding system is a gigantic milking machine which has plundered investor and consumer—often on shattering investments—and is inherently injurious to both; that its manifold sins are revealed through scores of volumes of federal documents; that community toleration of utilities as "natural monopolies" cannot justify control by a few powerful groups over plants scattered through many states; that it has become so huge and impossible to regulate as to interfere with democratic government; and that it must be trimmed down to units of size and power which can be regulated for protection of investors and the public.

So Title I of the bill—as reported by the Wheeler committee to the senate—provides that within five years holding companies—defined as companies owning directly or indirectly, 10 per cent voting control of a gas or electric company, or otherwise as exercising controlling influence—must choose between:

1. Turning themselves into investment trusts and relinquishing control of management of operating companies.
2. Reducing holdings so each controls but a single system of operating companies, either predominantly interstate or geographically and economically integrated.
3. Distributing securities and assets equitably among their own security holders.

The Securities Exchange Commission would supervise these operations and could extend the time limit one or two more years if necessary to prevent loss.

Bill Branded Ruinous

Holding company executives insist this would "destroy" the industry and cause huge losses in securities values as securities were dumped on the market.

The senate committee replies that at least five-sixths of the public's investment in utilities is in operating companies; that dumping isn't necessary when holding companies have five years to rearrange their affairs and can distribute securities among existing securities holders; that 85 per cent of holding company stock shrinkage preceded the Roosevelt administration; that such stocks have increased since the bill was introduced; and that holding company security holders will emerge from reorganization with better stocks than they went in with—their dividends undepressed by big fees, high salaries, and bonuses to holding company officers and bankers or purchase of securities from corporate insiders at exorbitant prices.

Plan Immediate Control

Pages after pages of Title I are devoted to giving the SEC immediate, continuous, and effective control over holding company operations from now on.

That's to eliminate "misquoting" practices of holding companies at once and to guarantee a square deal to investors and consumers in the reorganization process instead of leaving them exposed to devices for which some holding companies are declared to have been famous.

All holding companies must register with SEC by October 1 and make complete reports of holdings, salaries, business relationships, balance sheets, bonuses and so on.

Later-company relationships would

Auto Production Back to Normal

Adjustment of General Motors Strikes Faster; Increase Likely

DETROIT—with difficulties adjusted in the automobile industry, the strikes in several General Motors units especially, the output has been brought up to normal during the last two weeks. Further increases in production appear likely, as unexpectedly large orders from dealers and distributors continue.

Bellet gains strength that the year will be a 4,000,000-unit period. If this number is reached, a larger proportion than for many years will report first purchases or transactions that do not involve a trade-in—a fact that will bring great satisfaction to the dealers.

This is one of the most encouraging factors growing out of the steadily improving situation in the automobile industry, and is evidenced by the growing spread between output of new cars and the tapering off of the number of vehicles listed as having gone into the replacement market.

The volume of cars needed to the rapidly growing scrap heap during the current year will not be far from 2,000,000, and if the industry produces and sells to consumers an additional 1,500,000 units, it will reach the greatest volume since the record year of 1929.

Ross, McLarnin Fight Tuesday

Bout to Be Inauguration of Most Profitable Fistic Program

NEW YORK.—(AP)—The welterweight championship fight Tuesday night at the Polo grounds, bringing together Jimmy McLarnin and Barney Ross for the third time in one of the ring's outstanding title rivalries, is likely to inaugurate the most enterprising, if not the most profitable, outdoor pugilist campaign in nearly ten years.

There hasn't been a million-dollar "gate" in New York since Jack Dempsey knocked out Jack Sharkey at the Yankee stadium in 1926. None will touch that Rickardian figure this year, barring a promotional miracle, but the three big fights slated for the big town within a month should cross well over $1,000,000 combined.

This prediction is based on the prospects of a $200,000 house for Tuesday's fistic show, and "gates" of $200,000 and $500,000, respectively, for the Max Baer-Jim Braddock heavyweight championship fight and the Primo Carnera-Joe Louis match.

It will require at least 35,000 customers to produce a $200,000 house for McLarnin's defense of the 147-pound crown. With favorable weather, this should be realized.

Ross, so sure of himself that he cast aside his world lightweight title to concentrate his fistic attack on heavier rivals, figures to win "going away" as they say at the race tracks.

Old pencil stubs, turned in when new ones are requisitioned, are collected at the Albany telephone company and sent to the children of the Albany orphans' home.

Englishmen like more color to their shirts than do Canadians, judging by purchases.

Backs Prayer for Peace with Gun

Even when going to church, Emperor Haile Selassie of Abyssinia demonstrates that, although he prays for peaceful settlement of the dispute with Italy, he will defend his country with every resource. Pictured here on his way to attend religious services he carries a gun as symbol of his readiness to go to war should peace negotiations fail.

Just Received
QUEEN MAKE
WASH FROCKS
Hemstitching and Buttons Covered
THE GIFT SHOP
Front Street

66 Miles
On 1 Gallon?
Scientific Laboratory, P-477, Wheaton, Ill., report an amazing new vapor automatic gas saver. 500% profits. Fits all autos. Anyone can attach. One sent free to introduce quick. Send address and car name today.

WASH SUITS
Properly Laundered
50c
Nelson-Huckins

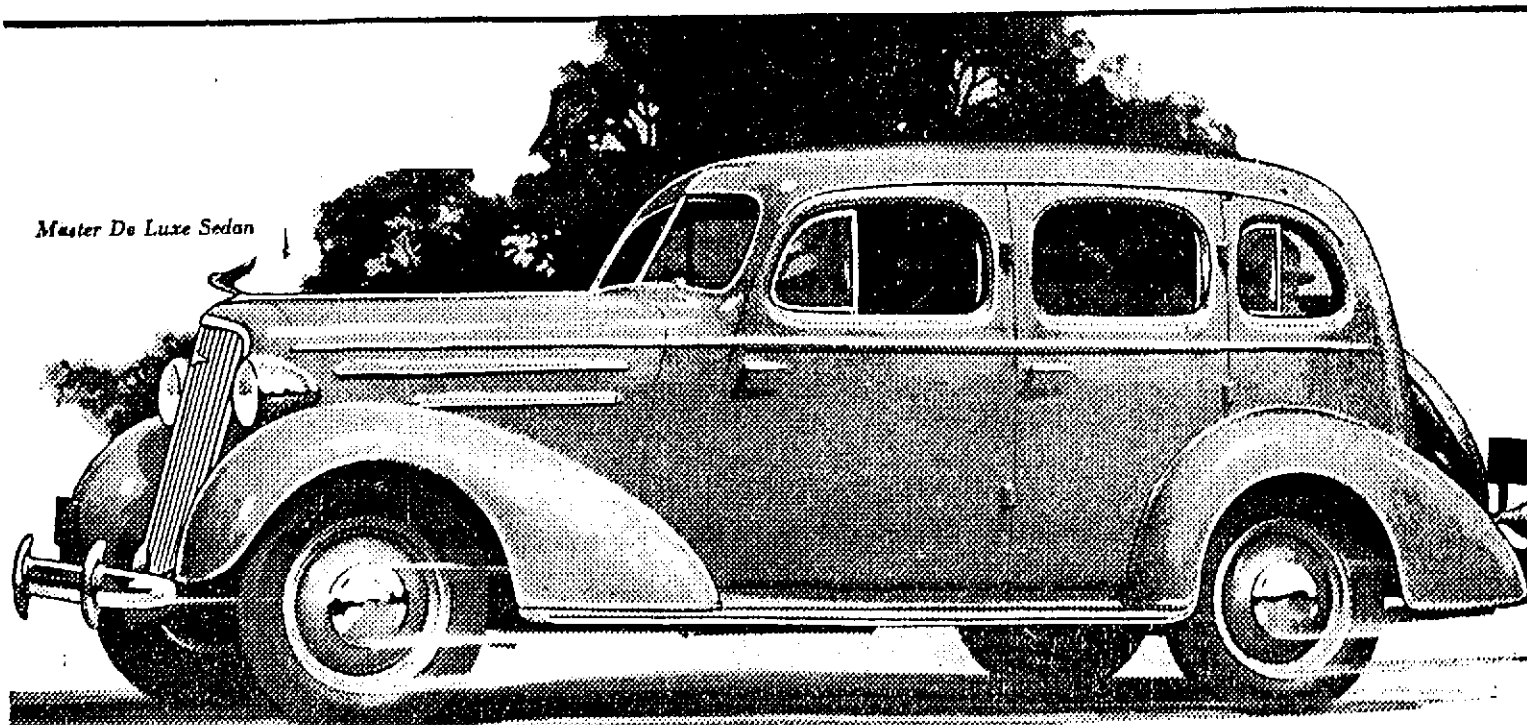

Ask Your Merchant for
Fresh Potato Chips
Made Daily in Hope by Hope Boys
Gentry and Toland
"Bill" "Clyde"

Doctors Choose
CHILD'S LAXATIVE
You do not have to treat children to take from a mint, the delicious tasting chewing gum laxative. They like it. And, because it is chewed the laxative ingredient is mixed with helpful activity and so enters the system essentially, as nature intended. The shock of a harsh laxative mass is thus avoided. Too, doctors like the nonirritating, non-habit forming qualities of Peas-a-min's laxative ingredient. It gives a thorough, prompt, but gentle action for every member of the family. Delay is dangerous and Peas-a-min is the pleasant, effective, scientific answer. 17c and 25c at druggists.

ST. CHARLES HOTEL

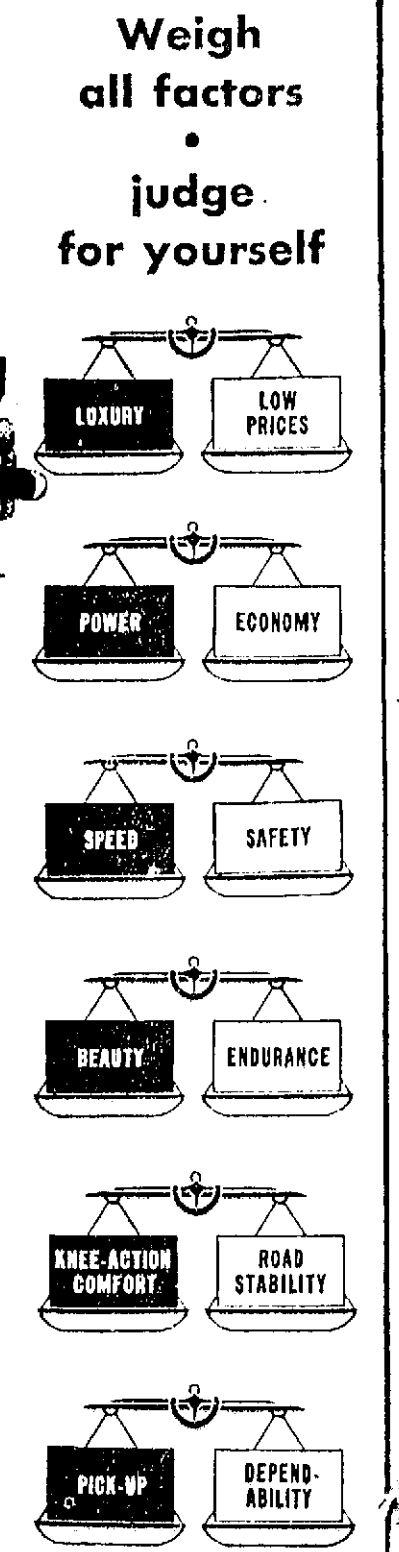

Under new management; refurbished and modernized... Beautyrest mattresses, Simmons beds, radios... SPEND THE WEEK END AT THE ST. CHARLES
Excellent Food... Splendid Bar
Reasonable Rates
JOHN J. ("MIKE") O'LEARY, Manager
Direction:
DINKLER HOTELS CO., INC.
• Other DINKLER Hotels:
ANSLEY... ATLANTA
JEFFERSON DAVIS... MONTGOMERY
TUTWILER... BIRMINGHAM
ANDREW JACKSON... NASHVILLE
CARLING DINKLER
President and General Manager
"DISPENSERS OF TRUE SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY"

It's the most finely balanced low-priced car ever built
/CHEVROLET/
DEALER ADVERTISEMENT

CHOOSE CHEVROLET FOR QUALITY AT LOW COST

CHEVROLET
Master De Luxe
YOUNG CHEVROLET Co.
HOPE, ARK.

THE new Master De Luxe Chevrolet brings you a perfect combination of the most desired motor car advantages, from alluring Fisher Body beauty to the famous gliding Knee-Action Ride, and from solid steel Turret-Top construction to spirited Blue-Flame valve-in-head performance. Yet the Master De Luxe sells at much lower prices and gives much greater operating economy than any other motor car you would think of comparing with it! See this car... drive it... today!

CHEVROLET MOTOR CO., DETROIT, MICH.
Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices and easy G. M. A. C. terms. A General Motors Value